Simmons, 2019 California employers are covered by state and federal laws that regulate family and medical leaves. These laws guarantee employees the right to take leaves to care for newborn children, adopted children, and seriously ill family members. Employees can also take leaves needed due to their own serious health conditions, due to qualifying exigencies, and to care for servicemembers. The laws usually require employers to maintain health insurance benefits in effect, continue life and disability insurance, allow the use of vacation and sick leave benefits, and comply with numerous other rules. These rules regulate reinstatement, employee handbooks, employee notice, record keeping, and posting requirements. They also establish serious sanctions and penalties from publisher.
