

A muscular man with a beard and intense expression is shown from the chest up. He is in a workshop or garage, with a motorcycle engine visible in the background. The lighting is dramatic, with warm tones on his face and cooler tones on his chest and arms. The text 'QUICK FIX' is overlaid in a large, white, distressed font.

day of her second trip to Haiti That day Catherine made the simple decision to enroll Lovely in school and to pay for it with money she and her readers donated Over the next five years Catherine would visit Lovely and her family seventeen times while also reporting on the country s struggles to harness the international rush of aid Each trip Catherine s relationship with Lovely and her family became more involved and more complicated Trying to balance her instincts as a mother and a journalist and increasingly conscious of the costs involved Catherine found herself struggling to align her worldview with the realities of Haiti after the earthquake Although her dual roles as donor and journalist were constantly at odds as one piled up expectations and the other documented failures a third role had emerged and quietly become the most important that of a friend A Girl Named Lovely is about the reverberations of a single decision in Lovely s life and in Catherine s It recounts a journalist s voyage into the poorest country in the Western hemisphere hit by the greatest natural disaster in modern history and the fraught messy realities of international aid It is about hope kindness heartbreak and the modest but meaningful difference one person can make
