Termini,2007 Schooling for Sustainable Development in Africa Heila Lotz-Sisitka,Overson Shumba,Justin Lupele,Di Wilmot,2016-11-11 This book considers the scope and dynamics of Education for Sustainable Development ESD and learning in schools in Africa It explores the conditions and processes that support such learning and examines how ESD in schooling can improve the quality and relevance of education The quality of education has been defined internationally as a key concern for educational institutions around the world including schools in Africa The models of quality are often limited to performance based approaches and or inclusive approaches The contributions in this book show that there is more to a discussion on educational quality in Africa than performance success and or inclusion The chapters explain how ESD brings a new relevance to education in Africa and at the same time sounds the beginning of a new concept of quality education The volume presents a collection of experiences in creating and supporting quality learning processes through a variety of ESD practices Contributions to the Life Histories of Sciaenidae of the Eastern United States Coast William Welsh Welsh,Charles Marcus Breder,1923 Explorations in African History Veit Arlt,Stepahnie Bishop,Pascal

Schmid,2015-07-01 This collection of essays documents the growth of African history as a discipline at the University of Basel since 2001 It thus pays tribute to fourteen years of research and teaching by Patrick Harries at the Department of History and the Centre for African Studies Basel The Festschrift covers a broad range of topics from mine labour to missionary endeavour and the production of knowledge reflecting some of his core research interests The contributions engage with Patrick Harries oeuvre with reference to the authors own scholarship or vice versa Some directly address his publications while others take his teaching correspondence remarks or intellectual life more broadly as a point of reference They all pay tribute to a brilliant and inspiring scholar a great teacher and a kind person Annual Report South Africa. Department of Basic Education,2016 Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Committee on Science and Astronautics United States. Congress. House. Committee on Science and Astronautics,1974 A Commonwealth of Knowledge Saul Dubow,2006-10-19 This is the first full study of the relationship of knowledge to national identity formation in modern South Africa It explores how the cultivation of knowledge served to support white political ascendancy and claims to nationhood Elegantly written and wide ranging the book addresses major themes in both South African and comparative imperial historiography Field Guide to the Eastern & Southern Cape Coasts Irene J. De Moor,1998 Whether you are a bird watcher an angler a hiker a diver an environmentalist or merely a weekend nature lover this guide will provide hours of fascinating reading and be an invaluable reference for years to come Osseous Projectile Weaponry Michelle C. Langley,2017-01-27 This volume presents the current state of knowledge on the osseous projectile weaponry that was produced by Pleistocene cultures across the globe Through cross cultural and temporal comparison of manufacturing methods design use methods and associated technology chapters in this volume identify and discuss differences and similarities between these Pleistocene cultures The central research questions addressed in this volume include a how did osseous weaponry technology develop and change through time and can these changes be tied to environmental and or social influences b how did different Pleistocene cultures design and adapt their osseous weaponry technology to their environment as well as changes in that environment and c can we identify cultural interaction between neighboring groups through the analysis of osseous weapons technology and if so can we use these items to track the movement of peoples and or ideas across the landscape Through addressing these three central research questions this volume creates an integrated understanding of osseous technology during a vital period in Modern Human cultural development which will be useful for students and advanced researchers alike Healing Traditions Karen E. Flint,2008-10-21 In August 2004 South Africa officially sought to legally recognize the practice of traditional healers Largely in response to the HIV AIDS pandemic and limited both by the number of practitioners and by patients access to treatment biomedical practitioners looked toward the country s traditional healers as important agents in the development of medical education and treatment This collaboration has not been easy The two medical cultures embrace different ideas about the body and the origin of illness but they do share a history of commercial and ideological competition and different relations to state power Healing Traditions African Medicine Cultural Exchange and Competition in South Africa 1820-1948 provides a long overdue historical perspective to these interactions and an understanding that is vital for the development of medical strategies to effectively deal with South Africa's healthcare challenges Between 1820 and 1948 traditional healers in Natal South Africa transformed themselves from politically powerful men and women who challenged colonial rule and law into successful entrepreneurs who competed for turf and patients with white biomedical doctors and pharmacists To understand what is traditional about traditional medicine Flint argues that we must consider the cultural actors and processes not commonly associated with African therapeutics white biomedical practitioners Indian healers and the implementing of white rule Carefully crafted well written and powerfully argued Flint's analysis of the ways that indigenous medical knowledge and therapeutic practices were forged contested and transformed over two centuries is highly illuminating as is her demonstration that many traditional practices changed over time Her discussion of African and Indian medical encounters opens up a whole new way of thinking about the social basis of health and healing in South Africa This important book will be core reading for classes and future scholarship on health and healing in Africa NASA Authorization for Fiscal Year 1974 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Aeronautical and Space Sciences, 1973

Panbiogeography Robin C. Craw, John R. Grehan, Michael J. Heads, 1999-04-15 Biogeography is a diverse subject traditionally focusing on the distribution of plants and animals at different taxonomic levels past and present Modern biogeography also puts emphasis on the ecological character of the world vegetation types and on the evolving relationship between humans and their environment Panbiogeography describes a new synthesis of sciences of plant and animal distribution The book emphasizes that the geographical patterns of animal and plant distribution contribute directly to the understanding and interpretation of evolutionary history Geographic location is reintroduced as a critical element of both biogeography and evolutionary biology The authors present chapters exploring the roles of geology ecology evolution in panbiogeographic theory and introduce new methods modes of classification and ways of measuring biodiversity

Oxford Textbook of Medical Education Kieran Walsh, 2016 Providing a comprehensive and evidence based reference guide for those who have a strong and scholarly interest in medical education the Oxford Textbook of Medical Education contains everything the medical educator needs to know in order to deliver the knowledge skills and behaviour that doctors need The book explicitly states what constitutes best practice and gives an account of the evidence base that corroborates this Describing the theoretical educational principles that lay the foundations of best practice in medical education the book gives readers a thorough grounding in all aspects of this discipline Contributors to this book come from a variety of different backgrounds disciplines and continents producing a book that is truly original and international Microbial Fuel Cell (MFC) Applications for Sludge Valorization Muaz Mohd Zaini Makhtar, Hafiza Shukor, Abu Zahrim Yaser, 2023-06-08 This book highlights current efforts and research in Malaysia on Microbial Fuel Cell MFC approach as a core technique for sludge treatment and energy recovery It also includes health and socioeconomic perspectives used in this approach The book begins with an overview of sludge in waste treatment plants and the efficient generation of renewable energy through dewatered sludge bioconversion via MFC It presents the use of Electrogenic Bacteria EB for accelerating the hydrolysis treatment of sludge and the determination of metabolites produced in the process The book highlights new achievements in the purification of sludge through rubber band technology and further treatment It discusses the recovery of beneficial biodegradable polymer compounds that are added value for the plastic industry and presents safety issues of sludge on human health Further it presents a case study on the MFC project for STEM Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics education and includes the economic perspective of innovation in energy The book ends with various ways forward toward improving renewable energy production and clean waste treatment
