Scars of Partition William F. S. Miles, 2014-07-01 Based on three decades of fieldwork throughout the developing world Scars of Partition is the first book to systematically evaluate the long term implications of French and British styles of colonialism and decolonization for ordinary people throughout the so called Third World It pays particular attention to the contemporary legacies of artificial boundaries superimposed by Britain and France that continue to divide indigenous peoples into separate postcolonial states In so doing it uniquely illustrates how the distinctive stamps of France and Britain continue to mark daily life along and behind these inherited borders in Africa Asia Oceania and the Caribbean Scars of Partition draws on political science anthropology history and geography to examine six cases of indigenous indentured and enslaved peoples partitioned by colonialism in West Africa West Indies South Pacific Southeast Asia South India and the Indian Ocean William F S Miles demonstrates that sovereign nations throughout the developing world despite basic differences in culture geography and politics still bear the underlying imprint of their colonial pasts Disentangling and appreciating these embedded colonial legacies is critical to achieving full decolonization particularly in their borderlands

Ethnic Groups of Laos: Profiles of Austro-Asiatic-speaking peoples Joachim Schliesinger, 2003 Land Law and Disputes in Asia Yuka Kaneko, Narufumi Kadomatsu, Brian Z. Tamanaha, 2021-09-16 Through an in depth legal analysis by leading scholars this book searches for the exact legal causes of land related disputes in Asia within the histories legal systems and social realities of the respective countries It consists of four main parts examining the relationship between law and development land taking in developmental stages common ownership and proposals for new approaches to land law and dispute resolution With a combination of orthodox legal interpretations and the empirical approach of legal sociology the contributors undertake an extensive comparative legal analysis across common and civil law traditions Most importantly they propose pathways forward for legal transformations in the pursuit of sustainable development in Asia This book is vital contribution to the study of comparative law and especially property law in East and Southeast Asia Education in the Lao People's Democratic Republic Richard Noonan, 2020-05-20 This book provides a comprehensive and in depth description of the education system in Lao PDR It covers pre school primary secondary general secondary technical and vocational post secondary non higher education and adult non formal education and training In addition to the main content the book includes a glossary of terms and abbreviations used and an appendix on the organizational structure of the Ministry of Education and Sports including the linkages between the national provincial and district level The content covers public and private sector education provision alike Education, Language, and Economics, 2010-01-01 There are two contending opinions with regard to the seemingly amorphous phenomenon of globalization. Some believe that globalization has brought rapid prosperity to developing countries while others argue that globalization best serves the needs of countries of the developed world. Bringing globalization under the microscope of education, this book illustrates how globalization is producing unprecedented impacts on education and culture through a series of country case studies elaborating on effects of economic and educational policies in the modern globalized world. New emphasis on the interplay between state and education policy initiatives in developed and developing countries also illuminates the direct and indirect impact of globalization in equity and quality driven education reforms with particular focus on the contribution of marketization or privatization to the ongoing commodification of education and curricula presenting dilemmas to both developed and developing countries to provide quality education for all, protect human rights and ensure equity in all realms of human endeavor. This book offers a multiplicity of approaches to education and development and posits that distributional equity and quality education in a globalized world require a strong state and commitment to social justice to counteract growing disparities evident in educational and economic indices. The authors illustrate how respatialization of the contemporary state is rapidly taking shape in concrete institutions to recast the boundaries of the social, political and economic in fundamental ways. Education, Language and Economics: Growing National and Global Dilemmas serves as an ideal introduction to key contemporary debates on politics, culture and the economy.

Embodied Nation Simon Creak, 2017-08-31 This strikingly original book examines how sport and ideas of physicality have shaped the politics and culture of modern Laos Viewing the country's extraordinary transitions from French colonialism to royalist nationalism to revolutionary socialism to the modern development state through the lens of physical culture Simon Creak's lively and incisive narrative illuminates a nation that has no reputation in sport and is typically viewed even from within as a country of cheerful but lazy people Creak argues that sport and related physical practices including physical education gymnastics and military training have shaped a national consciousness by locating it in everyday experience These practices are popular participatory performative and above all physical in character and embody ideas and ideologies in a symbolic and experiential way Embodied Nation takes readers on a brisk ride through more than a century of Lao history from a nineteenth century game of tikhi an indigenous game resembling field hockey to the country's unprecedented outpouring of nationalist sentiment when hosting the 2009 Southeast Asian Games En route we witness a Lao Vietnamese soccer brawl in 1936 the fascist inspired body ethic of the early 1940s the novel modes of military masculinity that blossomed with national independence the spectacular state theatrics of power represented by Olympic inspired sports festivals and the high hopes and frequent failures of socialist sport in the 1970s and 1980s Of central concern in Creak's narrative are the twin motifs of gender and civilization Despite increasing female participation since the early twentieth century he demonstrates the major role that sport and physical culture have played in forming hegemonic masculinities in Laos Even with limited national sporting success Laos has never won an Olympic medal the healthy toned and muscular form has come to symbolize material development and prosperity Embodied Nation outlines the complex ways in which these motifs through sport and physical culture articulate with state power Combining cultural and intellectual history with historical thick description Creak draws on a creative array of Lao and French sources from previously unexplored archives newspapers and magazines and from ethnographic writing war photography and cartoons More than an imagined community or geobody he shows that Laos was also a body at work making substantive theoretical contributions not only to Southeast Asian studies and history but to the study of the physical culture nationalism masculinity and modernity in all modern societies
