of life crescendos into a love song binding family members across the waters Kirkus Reviews Etta et Otto Emma Hooper, 2015 We Should Not Be Afraid of the Sky Emma Hooper, 2022-08-09 LONGLISTED FOR THE 2023 CAROL SHIELDS PRIZE FOR FICTION An epic boundary pushing tale of five young women rebelling against an era that relies on their submission from the acclaimed author of Etta and Otto and Russell and James During the golden age of the Roman Empire five girls enjoy a modest childhood in their small Portuguese village They race each other through lemon orchards and pick fresh fruit for the commander who overlooks his people from a large house on the hill Though the girls are all raised by different families there is one thing they know without a doubt they are sisters What they don't know is that their simple existence is about to be irrevocably changed When soldiers abduct them from their village and bring them to the commander the sisters are suddenly forced to confront long buried secrets that reveal their lives to be anything but ordinary Burgeoning on womanhood just as the Empire begins to show signs of crumbling around them they soon find themselves at the centre of a deadly standoff and must part ways to fight their own battles in order to survive One of Emma Hooper's most compelling novels yet We Should Not Be Afraid of the Sky is bursting at the seams with abstract miracles devastating tenderness hope desire and treachery with life and death in all their glory Demonstrating both the force and fragility of human nature Hooper urges us to consider how we'll each face our own final hour to examine what the end really means is it something to fear or is it a daring leap into the blaze of a new beginning
