Bird, 2013-05-01 Jennifer G Bird analyzes the construction of wives' subjectivity in 1 Peter working primarily with what is referred to as the Haustafel household code section and engaging feminist critical questions postcolonial theory and materialist theory in her analysis Bird examines the two crucial labels for understanding Petrine Christian identity aliens and refugees and royal priesthood and holy nation And finds them to stand in stark contrast with the commands and identity given to wives in the Haustafel section Similarly the command to honour the Emperor which immediately precedes the Haustafel engenders a rich discussion of the text's socio political implications The critical engagement of several symptomatic irruptions within the commands to the wives uncovers the abusive dynamic underlying this section of the letter Finally Bird considers the present day implications of her study Publisher description
