Behavioral Characteristics of Male Teachers in Early Childhood Education Mark F. Whitney, 1981 Awakenings Bernard Koloski, 2009-12 No other American book was so maligned neglected for so long and then embraced so quickly and with such enthusiasm as Kate Chopin's 1899 novel The Awakening For the twelve scholars whose essays make up this collection reading the novel was a life changing event Awakenings explains how as graduate students and young college instructors they carried out some of the basic research thought through some of the critical approaches and developed some of the present directions for reading studying and teaching Kate Chopin a foundation narrative that focuses on what happened a generation ago and why Horrific Sex Ruth Binstock Anolik, 2007-07-16 The Gothic moment in literary history arose in the age of the Enlightenment and the Gothic fascination with the unknown reflects the Enlightenment's response to the limits of reason. Traditionally the emblem of the unknown that lurks in the Gothic is the supernatural, the monstrous and the inhuman. Often overlooked is the observation that Gothic texts are also haunted by figures that represent the mystery of sexuality. This collection of essays sharpens that observation and asserts that Gothic anxieties about sexuality are likewise rooted in fear of the unknown represented by sexual practices and desires that either lie hidden or deviate from cultural norms. The first three sections refer to popular as well as marginalized Gothic texts to portray the three prototypes of sexual deviance: the female sexual Other in The Fatal Woman, the male sexual Other in The Satanic Male and the homosexual Other in Homosexual Horror. The fourth section covers literary works that celebrate sexual difference and question the idea that the sexually deviant is socially Other.

Zombifying a Nation Toni Pressley-Sanon, 2016-07-19 The figure of the zombie that entered the popular imagination with the publication of William Seabrook's The Magic Island 1929 during the American occupation of Haiti still holds cultural currency around the world. This book calls for a rethinking of zombies in a sociopolitical context through the examination of several films including White Zombie 1932, The Love Wanga 1935, I Walked with a Zombie 1943 and The Serpent and the Rainbow 1988. A 21st century film from Haiti, Zombi candidat a la presidence ou les amours d un zombi is also examined. A reading of Heading South 2005, a film about the female tourist industry in the Caribbean, explores zombification as a consumptive process driven by capitalism.

Homes in Crisis Capitalism Marnie Holborow, 2024-02-22 Homes in Crisis Capitalism explores the core social reproduction role that individual households fulfil in our societies and the class and racial effects of this on gender inequality and discrimination. Women now make up nearly half of the paid workforce globally, yet prevailing neoliberal social policy continues to rule out adequate state provision of child and elder care, choosing instead to rely on marketized services to fill the gap. It is mainly women who carry out this little valued care work, either in a non-paid or paid capacity, and gender inequality is entrenched across society. Official gender parity policies, often expressed in terms of equality of opportunity, have done little to ease the double burden of domestic and care work for the vast majority of women. Competitive labour markets discriminate against those expected to be the primary caregivers of children, the sick and disabled, and older people. In addition, the presence across many societies of an acute housing crisis and soaring inflation have put added pressures on home life. A social reproduction crisis has developed, and it is working class women and women of colour who are paying the price. Holborow analyses homes in crisis capitalism through a Marxist lens of capitalist social reproduction. This book charts the interwoven social and political effects and outcomes of work and care provided in the home and makes the case for a radical break with capitalism to give social reproduction the material resources and social recognition it deserves.

Feminism against Cisness Emma Heaney, 2024-03-29 The contributors to Feminism against Cisness showcase the future of feminist historical, theoretical and political thought freed from the conceptual strictures of cisness, the fallacy that assigned sex determines sexed experience. The essays demonstrate that this fallacy hinges on the enforcement of white and bourgeois standards of gender comportment that naturalize brutalizing race and class hierarchies

It is therefore no accident that the social processes making cisness compulsory are also implicated in anti Blackness misogyny Indigenous erasure xenophobia and bourgeois antipathy for working class life Working from trans historical archives and materialist trans feminist theories this volume demonstrates the violent work that cis ideology has done and thinks toward a future for feminism beyond this ideology s counterrevolutionary pull Contributors Cameron Awkward Rich
