Instrumental Music in the Public Worship of the Church John Lafayette Girardeau, 1888      Instrumental Music in the Public Worship of the Church (Classic Reprint) John L. Girardeau, 2017-12-02 Excerpt from Instrumental Music in the Public Worship of the Church It will no doubt be said that the attempt to prove the unjustifiable employment of instrumental music in the public worship of the Church is schismatical since the practice is now well nigh universal that it is trivial inasmuch as it concerns a mere circumstantial in the services of religion and that it is useless as the ten deney which is resisted is invincible and is destined to triumph throughout Protestant Christendom To all this one answer alone is offered and it is sufficient namely that the attempt is grounded in truth It involves a contest for a mighty and all comprehending principle by opposing one of the special forms in which it is now commonly transcended and violated It is that principle emphasized in the following remarks as scriptural and regulative that lends importance to the discussion and redeems it from the reproach of being narrow and trying About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      Instrumental Music in the Public Worship of the Church John Lafayette Girardeau, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1888 edition Excerpt II Aegument From The Old Testament In the Jewish dispensation God was pleased to proceed in accordance with the great principle which has been signalized in regard to the introduction of instrumental music into the public worship of his people He kept the ordering of this part of his formal and instituted worship in his own hands There is positive proof that it was never made an element of that worship except by his express command Without his warrant it was excluded only with it was it employed 1 Let us notice the operation of this principle with reference to the tabernacle worship Moses received the mode of constructing the tabernacle and the order of its worship by divine revelation See saith he that thou make all things according to the pattern showed to thee in the mount It will be admitted that the instructions thus divinely given descended to the most minute details the sort of fabrics and skins to be used and their diverse colors the pins the ouches and the taches the ablutions the vestments and the actions of the officiating priests and Levites the ingredients of the holy ointment and the incense the parts the arrangements the instruments of worship to everything connected with the tabernacle these specific directions referred Of course if God had intended instrumental music to be employed it would have been included in these particular directions the instruments would have been specified for its performance and regulations enjoined for its use What now are the facts No directions are given respecting instruments of music Two instruments of sound are provided for but they were of such a character as to make it impracticable to use them ordinarily as accompaniments of the voice in singing
