Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Transportation, Housing and Urban Development, and Related Agencies,2015 Developing Nonprofit and Human Service Leaders Larry D. Watson,Richard A. Hoefer,2013-10-21

Developing Nonprofit and Human Service Leaders comprehensively prepares students with the skills to successfully manage human service organizations Authors Larry D Watson and Richard Hoefer explore core managerial competencies tailored to the unique environment of these organizations including administrative responsibilities values and ethics organizational theories leadership boards of directors fundraising supervision research cultural consideration and more This essential text offers hands on practice for the skills that future administrators will need to make a substantial impact in their organizations and communities Human Resources Management for Public and Nonprofit Organizations Joan E.

Pynes,2004-07-29 In this thoroughly revised and updated second edition of Human Resources Management for Public and Nonprofit Organizations Joan E Pynes a respected authority in public administration demonstrates how strategic human resources management is essential for proactively managing change in an environment of tighter budgets competition from private organizations the need to maintain and train a more diverse workforce and job obsolescence brought about by shifts in technology Complete with a free online instructor s manual this new edition offers current compensation and budgetary guidance and helps practitioners navigate the newest legal and technological challenges and opportunities in human resource management Integrating Mission and Strategy for Nonprofit Organizations James A. Phills Jr.,2005-07-21 Today s nonprofit organizations face an environment characterized by higher levels of competition for funding clients and audiences talent and recognition In addition they confront greater pressures from donors government and the public to demonstrate efficiency effectiveness sustainability and accountability while intense social needs and problems as well as the desire for growth drive them to expand their programs and activities Collectively these challenges go to the heart of fundamental issues of mission and strategy Integrating Mission and Strategy for Nonprofit Organizations applies and adapts the core body of general management knowledge about mission strategy and execution to help nonprofit leaders deal with the special challenges they face It strives to draw on this knowledge in a way that does not dilute or oversimplify and at the same time recognizes the unique features of the nonprofit or voluntary sector James A Phills develops an action oriented framework that combines rigorous analysis with the practical challenge of execution and change In addition to helping nonprofit leaders think through important decisions and make concrete choices the book also provides a shared language and a discipline that can serve as the basis for more productive discussions between the individuals who lead nonprofits the business executives who serve on their boards and the philanthropists who support their organizations and programs This last objective is critical because too often nonprofit leaders and board members complain that they can't reap the benefits of the expertise of their supporters funders and volunteers from the business sector Phills suggests that this is often the result of an inability to speak the same language and draw on a common understanding of key concepts such as competition strategy and vision

Managing Human Resources for Nonprofits Kunle Akingbola, 2015-06-05 The core resources and capabilities of any nonprofit organization lie in their human capital their knowledge skills and behaviors are critical to the achievement of the organization's mission and performance Thus effective management of this key resource is integral to the nonprofit organization's success This book focuses on the unique characteristics challenges and contribution of human resource management to the strategic objectives of the nonprofit It explores contemporary issues that place the management of people at the intersection between the mission strategy and performance of the organization The book Uses the latest theory to build models that explain the determinants and dimensions of strategic HRM within the nonprofit sector Examines the core HRM functions in the context of the nonprofit sector to provide insight into how nonprofits can optimize HRM contributions to performance Provides a step by step process to develop implement and manage HR practices that are aligned with the strategy of the nonprofit organization Demonstrates how to integrate volunteer management into strategic HRM Using examples from around the world as well as cases to facilitate learning this book is ideal for students and professionals interested in strategic human resource management and nonprofit management

Community Engagement and the COVID-19 Pandemic Tawnya Azar, 2025-06-24 Community engaged CE teaching is not a new concept However in the past several years it has gained increased emphasis as is evident by the changes to institution mission statements and the allocation of institution resources to support faculty development in CE teaching as well as to support CE coursework and research The arrival of the COVID 19 pandemic forced many faculty members to pivot to an all online instruction model impacting community engaged teaching and research in both predictable and unexpected ways Community partners facing similar struggles to serve their communities with restrictions on face to face interaction were often too overwhelmed to work with higher education volunteers Legally universities could not ask students to risk their health with face to face community engagement In fact the number of CE courses decreased dramatically in 2020 and 2021 due to the unique challenges posed by the pandemic At the same time the pandemic presented some CE faculty with new opportunities for community engagement Some responded swiftly to the immediate needs of the local regional or national community with which they worked taking advantage of the affordances of digital technology or capitalizing on the issues that the pandemic itself created or exacerbated This collection captures the incredible work of pivoting and innovating in community engaged teaching With a primary focus on community engaged teaching in higher education this collection explores how faculty students and community partners navigated their work during the COVID 19 pandemic Additionally it raises important questions about how we might stay engaged with community during a crisis
