The Urban Challenge in Education Joseph Scollo,Dona Stevens,Ellen Pomella,2014-11-03 With the advent of charter schools in the United States the face of public education has changed in this country From its early beginning in Minnesota to its exponential growth in California the charter school movement has generated much controversy It has been praised for its accomplishments and criticized for its creaming of students Over 130 000 students attend nearly 250 charter schools in the city of Los Angeles This book presents an in depth look at seventeen of those schools urban schools that are making a difference in the lives of the students and families they serve Readers will encounter a group of dedicated educational pioneers who are committed and passionate about their schools These are people who have sacrificed much and put their lives on hold to develop and implement schools that meet the needs of all students regardless of economic circumstance or background From people who have mortgaged their homes to attain financing for their dream to some that have changed careers to improve the quality of education for children and young adults Assessing Writers Carl Anderson, 2005 Anderson offers smart ready to use ideas for assessment The Writing Shop Suzanne Farrell Smith, 2020-03-09 Since the 1970s writing workshop has been a go to method for teaching writing It s helped students of all ages find their voices and stories while developing skills and craft In The Writing Shop the author reimagines what writing workshop can be By studying workshops of different kinds carpentry textile machine she pushes us to see writing workshop the way other makers see their own shops as places where creativity is fueled by the sensory experience When the essential elements of all workshops are adopted in writing workshop the author argues writers will flourish The author builds on writing workshop literature to introduce the model to newcomers while offering practical advice for those looking to strengthen their writing instruction The Writing Shop illustrates what happens when writing is taught in an authentic shop play is prioritized all types of learners are included and a host of skills beyond the mechanics of composition are embedded in the process of learning to write With its stories from diverse workshops and emphasis on exploration and experimentation The Writing Shop shows us that learning to write can be above all things fun The Classrooms All Young Children Need Patricia M. Cooper, 2010-10-21 Teacher and author Vivian Paley is highly regarded by parents educators and other professionals for her original insights into such seemingly everyday issues as play story gender and how young children think She is also recognized for exposing racism and exclusion in the early childhood classroom Surprisingly until now no one has attempted College Board Review , 2002 Early Childhood Literacy Teachers in High Poverty Schools Melissa Landa, 2017-11-01 Much has been written about the failure of White American public school teachers to effectively teach low income children of color to read and write Scholars have offered numerous explanations for this failure including the reluctance of teacher preparation programs to address cultural competence and the lack of cultural diversity among teacher educators In response to reported failures such as high attrition rates of novice teachers and low test scores American public schools are being subjected to increased standardization of the curriculum and high stakes testing This book provides rich illustrations of White early literacy teachers who choose to remain in low income school communities where they effectively and passionately embrace their students families and communities Blending the teachers successful practices shown in in depth interviews excavating their identities and life experiences with theoretical frameworks about teaching and learning Early Childhood Literacy Teachers in High Poverty Schools A Study of Boundary Crossing discusses the responsibility of public educators to cross geographical economic and political divisions on behalf of their students and offers strategies for teacher educators to equip future teachers for these tasks Resources in Education ,1986 Writing Instruction for English Learners Eugenia Mora-Flores,2008-10-29 Focusing on narrative expository and persuasive writing and poetry this guide provides strategies and tools to facilitate writing development for English learners in Grades 2 8 CliffsNotes Praxis Reading for Virginia Educators Jane R. Burstein,Diane E. Kern,2020-12-15 The perfect way to study for Virginia s elementary education and special education reading teacher certification test with subject reviews and two model practice tests Focusing on what entry level Virginia elementary and special education teachers need to be certified to teach this test prep guide includes targeted strategies for the selected response and constructed response questions and reviews of every test specification a candidate will be tested on including instructional process assessment and diagnostic teaching oral language and communication reading development and writing and research The two practice tests are full length model exams that include answers and explanations to help candidates succeed when they take the test
