

Jubilation as Class of 2023 Graduates

The Class of 2023 graduates of the University of the Philippines (UP) celebrated their graduation with a jubilant ceremony held at the UP Diliman campus. The graduates, dressed in traditional blue gowns and red stoles, were seen holding their diplomas and posing for group photos. The ceremony was attended by family members, friends, and university officials. The graduates expressed their pride and joy in completing their studies and their commitment to continue their education and contribute to the development of the Philippines.

New Funding Model to Streamline University Education - PS

The Department of Education (DepEd) has announced a new funding model for higher education institutions (HEIs) to streamline university education. The new model, known as the Performance-Based Funding (PBF) system, will be implemented starting in 2024. The PBF system will provide HEIs with a fixed amount of funding based on their performance in various areas, including student outcomes, research, and community service. The goal of the PBF system is to ensure that HEIs receive funding based on their quality of education and their contribution to the development of the Philippines.
