The Psychosomatic Therapy Casebook Jean Benjamin Stora,2023-07-20 Jean Benjamin Stora has worked as a psychoanalyst and psychosomatist for almost five decades The aim of integrative psychosomatics is to heal the body and mind in relationship to one another rather than treating the body as a machine with parts to be fixed Thus Stora explores a patient s current and past life history in relation to physical illness and offers therapeutic support alongside medical treatments To better understand this revolutionary approach Stora presents fifteen case studies from the past twenty years We read of George suffering from hyperlipidemia Giles a diabetic facing amputation Elvira an alcoholic Dorothy who complains the doctors treat body parts but not her Beatrice facing a reappearance of breast cancer and ten further patients This complex process takes into account the fundamental role of the central nervous system in the relationship of mind and body Thus neuroscience is a key component of this holistic approach as well as the new discipline of neuropsychanalysis This is most clearly shown in the case of Emma suffering after brain surgery The Psychosomatic

Therapy Casebook is an excellent introduction to integrative psychosomatics. The stories presented in the first four chapters can be read by anyone with an interest in the subject. The fifth and final chapter is aimed at psychotherapists, psychoanalysts and doctors looking to gain a greater understanding of the practice. It contains a comprehensive review of the technical points involved and clearly shows the difference between psychoanalytic technique and the technique of psychosomatic therapy. This is an important book in learning to treat the person as a whole rather than split into mind and body. Framing Hitchcock Sidney Gottlieb, Christopher Brookhouse, 2002. An engaging look at Alfred Hitchcock's work from all angles culled from an authoritative source of Hitchcock film commentary. In its ten year history the Hitchcock Annual has established itself as a key source of historical information and critical commentary on one of the central figures in film history and arguably one of the most important artists of the twentieth century. Fans of Alfred Hitchcock both scholars and general readers alike will be entertained and informed by this selection of writings which offers an overview of the current thinking on the filmmaker and his work. The articles span his career and cover a wide range of topics from archeological investigations uncovering new details about his working methods and conditions to incisive analyses of the films themselves. The collection begins with rare insights into Hitchcock's early years including his work in Germany and his silent film Easy Virtue which with its metaphoric play on the concept of being framed dramatizes aspects of the human condition to which Hitchcock returned repeatedly. Commentators explore a variety of themes including the centrality of kissing shots and sequences in nearly all the films and images of women's handbags as elements of suspense and sexual tension in such films as Dial M for Murder and Psycho. Other essays examine the influence of Vertigo, The Birds and Frenzy on François Truffaut, the remaking of Psycho and feminist interpretations of Shadow of a Doubt. Interviews with Jay Presson Allen and Evan Hunter illuminate Hitchcock's working relationship with screenwriters, actors and actresses. Written by established as well as emerging critics of Hitchcock, this fascinating collection will help shape future appreciation and interpretation of an enormously important and influential filmmaker. Emma Lady Hamilton from New and Original Sources and Documents Walter Sichel, 1905

How the Military Remembers Cynthia E. Milton, Michael Lazzara, 2025 This groundbreaking collection of essays examines how Latin American militaries construct memories of past human rights violations in ways that challenge established public memory and human rights discourse While previous studies have focused on democratization transitional justice and victim centered narratives this volume takes a different approach It highlights the importance of deconstructing the military s own active memory work or their counter memories a term the editors use to describe military narratives that are both counterintuitive and that run counter to the victim oriented memories that have long dominated the region s public memory With attention to the distinct cultural political and historical contexts across Latin America the essays reveal how military figures and institutions appropriate mechanisms of truth telling and accountability to reframe the past blur the lines between perpetrator and victim and weaponize memory itself Contributors Mariana Achugar Gabriela Fried Amilivia Rebecca Atencio Jo Marie Burt Rachel Hatcher Nicol s Rodr guez Id rraga Michael J Lazzara Cynthia E Milton Carla Granados Moya Mar a Emma Wills Obreg n Leith Passmore Valentina Salvi Gladys V squez Zevallos

Cinematic Quests for Identity Maria Garcia, 2015-04-02 Whether embodied in literature theater or film an enduring theme of many artistic works has been the protagonist s search for identity Such quests are typically psychological or spiritual journeys and depicted on the screen in a variety of manifestations endeavors embarked upon to address an emotional trauma or to overcome an obstacle in the hero s life Using Jean Cocteau s La Belle et La B te as a leitmotif these pursuits are discussed by author Maria Garcia as encounters with the Beast At the end of their quests heroes are reborn into their new identities while the Beast disappears transforms or dies In Cinematic Quests for Identity The Hero's Encounter with the Beast Garcia examines the cinematic conventions of the male and female search for individuation across several genres After discussing La Belle et la Bête the author looks at a number of films including three iconic male journeys The Picture of Dorian Gray The Searchers and The Deer Hunter Additional chapters focus on The Silence of the Lambs Bringing Up Baby The Lady Eve The Secret of Roan Inish The Natural and Moneyball The book concludes with a consideration of the three fairy tale films by Catherine Breillat Fat Girl Bluebeard and The Sleeping Beauty and the female characters in several Robert Bresson films including The Trial of Joan of Arc Providing a unique and original perspective on films throughout the world this provocative book draws upon Jungian thought as well as several literary traditions including fairy tales epic poetry and Greek and Celtic mythology Aimed at scholars of film and film theory Cinematic Quests for Identity will also appeal to movie fans interested in a deeper understanding of films that explore a character's struggle to live a conscious life
