As United States television programs movies music and other cultural products make their way around the globe a vigorous debate over cultural imperialism is growing in many countries This book brings together experts in economics sociology anthropology the humanities and communications to explore what effects the North American Free Trade Agreement will have on the flow of cultural products among Mexico the United States and Canada After an overview of free trade and the cultural industries the book covers the following topics dominance and resistance cultural trade and identity in relation to Mexico and to French Canada and intellectual property rights Based on present trends the contributors predict that there will be a steadily increasing flow of cultural products from the United States to its neighbors This book grew out of a 1994 conference that brought together leaders of the cultural industries policy makers and scholars It represents state of the art thinking about the global influence of U S cultural industries      Environmental Risk Communication in China Jia Dai, Fanxu Zeng, 2021-11-29 The role of media is becoming increasingly important as globalization has developed Given fast social transformation and technological development in China the consequent environmental and health risks demand citizens integrate the communication and prevention of such risks as a significant part of their daily life This book systematically discusses the communication process of typical environmental risk issues and the complex interaction among multiple actors including the public media experts non governmental organizations and government in contemporary China From a media centered perspective it applies major theories in the field of environmental and risk communication and uses a variety of empirical research methods to unravel the complicated and unique experience of communication and governance Combining theoretical reflections with real life examples of Chinese scenarios the authors not only encourage a dialogue between Western and Chinese academia but also inspire students and practitioners to apply risk communication theories to solving real life problems The book will appeal to students scholars and practitioners of risk and environmental communication studies      Inequality in the United States John Brueggemann, 2020-11-25 For courses in Inequality Social Stratification and Social Problems A thoughtful compilation of readings on inequality in the United States The main objective of this text is to introduce students to the subject of social stratification as it has developed in sociology The central focus is on domestic inequality in the United States with some attention to the broader international context The primary goal of the text is to offer an understanding of the history and context of debates about inequality and a secondary goal is to give some indication as to what issues are likely to arise in the future      Teaching and Learning Chinese as a Foreign or Second Language:

The Educational Psychology Perspective Yang Frank Gong, Chun Lai, Jinghe Han, Chan Lu, Sihui Echo Ke, 2024-02-21 Over the past two decades Chinese as a foreign or second language CFL CSL has been increasingly taught and learnt as an important language both within and outside China Studies in the field have attempted to address deep seated tensions between existing educational ideologies concepts strategies and approaches and student learning process and performance and between existent teaching methods and techniques and the globalization of Chinese language education AMST'02 Advanced Manufacturing Systems and Technology Elso Kuljanic, 2014-05-04 The work contains the results of the Sixth International Conference on Advanced Manufacturing Systems and Technology AMST 02 which was held in Udine in June 2002 It presents up to date information on the latest developments research results and experience in the field of machining of conventional and advanced materials machine tools and flexible manufacturing systems forming nonconventional processes robotics measurement and control quality design and ecodesign rapid prototyping rapid tooling and manufacturing materials and mechanics Advances in Social Theory and Methodology Karin Knorr Cetina, A.V. Cicourel, 2014-08-21 After a period in which sociology was torn apart by the polarized claims of micro and macro methodology an increasing number of sociologists are now attempting a fusion of the two approaches In this volume some of the most distinguished sociologists set out possible resolutions of the debate Each of the chapters placed in perspective by the editors prologue approaches the problem from a unique angle Aaron Cicourel argues for a macro basis of social interaction Randall Collins shows how the macro consists of an aggregate of micro episodes Troy Duster presents a methodological model for generating a systematic data base across different contexts of social action through his examination of the procedures governing screening for inherited disorders Rom Harr launches a philosophical attack on what he sees as a spurious bifurcation of micro and macro levels Anthony Giddens explores the problem of unintended consequences and Gilles Fauconnier through a depiction of Jesuitical casuistry shows how vital clues to macro structure can be elicited from the micro phenomenon of language Victor Lidz continues the language theme in his chapter on the implications of advances in linguistic theory for macro systems theory Niklas Luhmann illustrates the micro macro problem by the communication about law in interaction systems The theory of historical materialism is reassessed by Jürgen Habermas Taking the example of Renault and electric vehicles Michel Callon and Bruno Latour investigate how micro actor status is attained and the sociologists involvement in this transformation Finally Pierre Bourdieu writing on men and machines analyses the historical imperatives that create the complex relation between man and his environment Mixing and Unmixing Languages Amelia Abercrombie, 2020-07-16 Mixing and Unmixing Languages uses the politics and practices of language to understand social hierarchies and social change in a post conflict and post socialist context The book focuses on Roma in Prizren Kosovo where the author conducted long term ethnographic fieldwork using language learning as a central method Shifts in language practices among this highly multilingual group have reflected the demise of Yugoslav socialism the rise of ethno nationalist politics and conflict and the post war reversal of power relations in Kosovo Roma in Prizren nostalgically narrate a past of cosmopolitanism and employment in contrast to the present Their position today is complex while they stress their relative integration this position is fragile in the face of nationalist politics and imported neoliberal economic policies Within this context Roma NGO workers have found an economic niche working on projects to protect multiculturalism and minorities funded by international aid agencies centred on Romani language This book discusses the historical trajectory and current configurations of a Romani organisation in the town the standardisation of Romani and the hierarchical organisation of linguistic forms and language learning the self representation of Roma and the gypsy image through Romani language drama and attitudes to purism mixing and cosmopolitanism Mixing and Unmixing Languages is suitable for academics and students in the areas of linguistic anthropology and linguistic ethnography Romani studies South East European studies and sociolinguistics Elite Families Betty Farrell,1993-01-01 This book maps the development of a regional elite and its persistence as an economic upper class through the nineteenth century Farrell s study traces the kinship networks and overlapping business ties of the most economically prominent Brahmin families from the beginning of industrialization in the 1820s to the early twentieth century Archival sources such as genealogies family papers and business records are used to address two issues of concern to those who study social stratification and the structure of power in industrializing societies in what ways have traditional forms of social organization such as kinship been responsive to the social and economic changes brought by industrialization and how active a role did an early economic elite play in shaping the direction of social change and in preserving its own group power and privilege over time Cornell University Courses of Study Cornell University,2002 Monetary Economics in Globalised Financial Markets Ansgar Belke,Thorsten Polleit,2011-06-14 This book integrates the fundamentals of monetary theory monetary policy theory and financial market theory providing an accessible introduction to the workings and interactions of globalised financial markets Includes examples and extensive data analyses Bihar Sakshamta Pariksha : Sociology 2024 | Higher Secondary School Class 11-12 - Niyojit Special Teacher | 10 Practice Tests , Best Selling Book in English Edition for Bihar Sakshamta Pariksha Sociology Higher Secondary School Class 11 12 comes with objective type questions as per the latest syllabus given by the Bihar School Examination Board BSEB Bihar Sakshamta Pariksha Sociology Class XI XII Preparation kit comes with 10 Practice Tests with the best quality content Increase your chances of selection by 16X Bihar Sakshamta Pariksha Sociology Class XI XII comes with well structured and 100% detailed solutions for all the questions Clear exam with good grades using thoroughly Researched Content by experts MPDET Varg 3 (Paper I) Exam | 2100+ Solved Objective Questions (8 Mock Tests + 15 Sectional Tests + 1 Previous Year Paper) EduGorilla Prep Experts,2022-08-03 Best Selling Book in English Edition for MPDET Varg 3 Exam Paper I with objective type questions as per the latest syllabus given by the Madhya Pradesh Professional Education Board MPPEB Compare your performance with other students using Smart Answer Sheets in EduGorilla s MPDET Varg 3 Exam Paper I Practice Kit MPDET Varg 3 Exam Paper I
