Series I, II, and III George Macdonald,2012-11-26 MacDonald rejected the doctrine of penal Substitutionary atonement as put forward by John Calvin which argues that Christ has taken the place of sinners and is punished by God in their place believing that in turn it raised serious questions about the character and nature of God Instead he taught that Christ had come to save people from their sins and not from a Divine penalty for their sins The problem was not the need to appease a wrathful God but the disease of cosmic evil itself The second series tracts Religious tract society,1850 The Church, in a Series of Discourses Sylvester Judd,1854 The Meadow Series Barbara Dorrington,2014-03-26 This is a story about a Meadow a Forest and all of the folk that live there Their lives the danger surrounding them and how they deal with it Some humor some sadness but all of it exciting It will keep you wanting to read to the end of the book So hang on and lets get started on the adventures of The Meadow Instruction for young inquirers; being a series of addresses, intended to explain
