Sorkh Razil to the pipe dreams of Malibu's top nanny Zonker Harris and from the no more chill pills intervention by Obama's aides to the way cool love of a headbanging war vet and his MIT grad gal Doonesbury marches wildly on. What else is guaranteed to make you think, feel nostalgic and laugh out loud at least once a page? Karen Holt O Magazine The Long Road Home G. B. Trudeau, 2012-05-29 After losing his leg and his trademark helmet, B D returns home from Iraq to begin a remarkable journey of healing in this Doonesbury book. On a road outside Fallujah, an RPG blows apart a Humvee and upends the life of a former football star named B D. As a medevac chopper swoops down, the wounded Guardsman hears, "Not your time, bro. Not today." The Long Road Home: One Step at a Time chronicles seven months of cutting-edge cartooning during which B D and readers of the strip experienced the kind of personal transformation no one seeks. B D survives first response, Baghdad triage, evacuation to Landstuhl, and visits by innumerable celebs, both red and blue in hue. He's awed in turn by morphine, takes no guff from nurses, his fellow amputees, high-tech prostheses that cost more than luxury cars, and his family, including the daughter who hand-delivers succor, one aspirin at a time. From rebuilding tissue to rebuilding social skills to rebuilding lives, B D's inspiring, insightful, and darkly humorous story confirms that it can take a village or at least a ward to raise a soldier when he's gone down. "Thank you for getting blown up," offers one of B D's visiting players. Replies the coach, "Just doing my job."

Home Front Heroes Benjamin F. Shearer, 2006-11-30 Brings together 1,000 focused biographies of Americans who affected how the United States made, supported, perceived, and protested its major wars from the Revolution to Gulf War II. Inventors and scientists, nurses and physicians, reformers and clerics, civil rights and labor leaders, financiers and economists, artists and musicians have all been soldiers on the home front. Home Front Heroes brings together brief and focused biographies of 1,000 Americans who affected how the United States made, supported, perceived, and protested its major war efforts from the Revolution to Gulf War II. Battlefield victories and defeats are in a very real sense the reflection of the society waging war. Inventors and scientists, social reformers and clerics, civil rights and labor leaders, nurses and physicians, actors and directors, financiers and industrialists, economists and psychologists, artists and musicians, writers and journalists have all been soldiers on the home front. The biographical entries highlighting the subjects' wartime contributions are arranged alphabetically. Many of the entries also include suggestions for further reading. Thematic indexes make it easy to look up people alphabetically by last name and by war, and other indices list entries under broad categories: Arts and Culture, Business Industry and Labor, Nursing and Medicine, Science, Engineering and Inventions, with more detailed occupational background. Entries include Julia Ward Howe, composer of The Battle Hymn of the Republic; Robert Fulton, inventor of the steam engine and architect of the submarine Nautilus; Martin Brander, maker of Eliot's Saddle Ring Carbine; Robert Parker Parrott, inventor of the Parrott cannon; Novelist and War Correspondent Stephen Crane; Founder of the Army Nurse Corps Dr. Anita Newcomb McGee; Composer John Philip Sousa; Stars and Stripes Forever; Louis M. Terman, who invented the IQ test; Reginald Fessenden, developer of a sonic depth finder; machine gun inventor Benjamin Hotchkiss; Labor leader John L. Lewis;

Bechtold,2024-08-01 This book analyzes how the Iraqi city of Fallujah became registered as a setting for military heroics in American memory In 2004 the U S military conducted two disastrous assaults in Fallujah Iraq More than 1 000 citizens were killed and according to the military s own estimate upwards of 200 000 people were displaced because of the violence Yet despite this human catastrophe the kind of information that emerged in the public domain during the battle foregrounded the soldier s experience in war while effacing the destruction of Iraqi bodies This tendency to foreground the soldier body is a direct result of the military s intervention in what they conceptualize as the information environment This book draws from the second assault in Fallujah as a case study to explicate the military s investment in this perspectival space which is a consequence both of the mediatization of contemporary war and of the need to influence knowledge considered unfavorable to military operations In short the military enlists the media in their targeting process to produce information that is then deployed as persuasive force to modify the beliefs of specific target populations When the cultural texts produced by the media are remediated in the public domain after war they can be thought of as martial constructs because they originated during war through the military s systemized attempt to influence knowledge That is these texts trace to a specific battlefield objective This book reframes the notion of propaganda as a generalized public relations strategy into a more acute and coordinated attempt to decontextualize specific knowledge in the information environment This book will be of much interest to students of media and communication studies war studies memory studies and international relations Guide to the
