Stuart Hall Kuan-Hsing Chen, David Morley, 2006-05-23 A representative selection of Hall's enormously influential writings on cultural studies and Hall's engagement with urgent and abiding questions of race, ethnicity and identity

Deception in War Jon Latimer, 2003-04-29 From the Trojan Horse to Gulf War subterfuge, this far-reaching military history examines the importance and ingenuity of wartime deception campaigns. The art of military deception is as old as the art of war. This fascinating account of the practice draws on conflicts from around the world and across millennia. The examples stretch from the very beginnings of recorded military history: Pharaoh Ramses II's campaign against the Hittites in 1294 B.C. to modern times when technology has placed a stunning array of devices into the arsenals of military commanders. Military historians often underestimate the importance of deception in warfare. This book is the first to fully describe its value. Jon Latimer demonstrates how simple tricks have been devastatingly effective. He also explores how technology has increased the range and subtlety of what is possible, including bogus radio traffic, virtual images, even false smells. Deception in War includes examples from land, sea and air to show how great commanders have always had, as Winston Churchill put it, that indispensable element of legerdemain: an original and sinister touch which leaves the enemy puzzled as well as beaten.

Works of Love in a World of Violence Deidre Nicole Green, 2016-11-10 As she constructively engages feminist critiques of Christianity's complicity in violence, Deidre Nicole Green challenges traditional beliefs that self-sacrifice amounts to love and that suffering is inherently redemptive by arguing for a Kierkegaardian conception of Christian love that limits self-sacrifice.
