Hanshew, 2015-10-28 The sound came again so unmistakably this time the sound of a footstep in the soft squashy ooze on the Heath there could be no question regarding the nature of it Miss Lorne came to an instant standstill and clutched her belongings closer to her with a shake and a quiver and a swift prickle of goose flesh ran round her shoulders and up and down the backs of her hands There was good brave blood in her it is true but good brave blood isn't much to fall back upon if you happen to be a girl without escort carrying a hand bag containing twenty odd pounds in money several bits of valuable jewellery your whole earthly possessions in fact and have lost your way on Hampstead Heath at half past eight o'clock at night with a spring fog shutting you in like a wall and shutting out everything else but a mackerel collection of clouds that looked like grey smudges on the greasy silver of a twilight sky She looked round but she could see nothing and nobody The Heath was a white waste that might have been part of the scenery in Lapland for all there was to tell that it lay within reach of the heart and pulse of the sluggish leviathan London Over it the vapours of night crowded an almost palpable wall of thick wet mist stirred now and again by some atmospheric movement which could scarcely be called a wind although at times it drew long lacey filaments above the level of the denser mass of fog and melted away with them into the calm still upper air Miss Lorne hesitated between two very natural impulses to gather up her skirts and run or to stand her ground and demand an explanation from the person who was undoubtedly following her She chose the latter Who is there Why are you following me What do you want she flung out keeping her voice as steady as the hard sharp hammering of her heart would permit      Cleek Thomas Hanshew, 2020-10-16 Hamilton Cleek master of disguise assists Superintendent Narkom of Scotland Yard in solving crimes while fending off

HANSHEW,2021-08-02 THE AFFAIR OF THE MAN WHO CALLED HIMSELF HAMILTON CLEEK The thing wouldn't have happened if any other constable than Collins had been put on point duty at Blackfriars Bridge that morning For Collins was young good looking and knew it Nature had gifted him with a susceptible heart and a fond eye for the beauties of femininity So when he looked round and saw the woman threading her way through the maze of vehicles at Dead Man's Corner with her skirt held up just enough to show two twinkling little feet in French shoes and over them a graceful willowy figure and over that an enchanting if rather too highly tinted face with almond eyes and a fluff of shining hair under the screen of a big Parisian hat that did for him on the spot Cleek Thomas W. Hanshew,1913 What would you do if you had the power to change your appearance any time you wished That's the unusual ability that Hamilton Cleek exploited to become one of the most formidable thieves in history But when the crook falls head over heels in love he renounces his life as a criminal and becomes one of Scotland Yard's top detectives If Sherlock Holmes is a bit too stuffy for your taste you'll love the quirky detective at the heart of Cleek The Man of the Forty Faces Cleek, the Master Detective Thomas W.
