The Cambridge Companion to Film Music Mervyn Cooke, Fiona Ford, 2016-12-08 This wide ranging and thought provoking collection of specially commissioned essays provides a uniquely comprehensive overview of the many and various ways in which music functions in film soundtracks Citing examples from a variety of historical periods genres and film industries including those of the USA UK France Italy India and Japan the book's contributors are all leading scholars and practitioners in the field They engage sometimes provocatively with numerous stimulating aspects of the history theory and practice of film music in a series of lively discussions which will appeal as much to newcomers to this fascinating subject as to seasoned film music aficionados Innovative research and fresh interpretative perspectives are offered alongside practice based accounts of the film composer's distinctive art with examples cited from genres as contrasting as animation the screen musical film noir Hollywood melodrama the pop music and jazz film documentary period drama horror science fiction and the Western

SCM Studyguide: Philosophy and the Christian Faith Ben Pugh, 2018-12-04 The challenges that Western culture keeps posing to the Christian faith are ever new The goal posts keep changing This study guide will equip theology students to understand the culture shaping beliefs that are driving the kinds of questions it brings to faith It will be an historical overview of the key stages in the history of Western philosophy with each section carefully tracing the genealogical line of ideas and the Christian responses to them right up to the present day For most theology students learning abstract philosophical concepts involves literally learning a new language a language that the initiated converse in with ease but which leaves the uninitiated baffled Thus each chapter in this study guide opens with a glossary of terms Throughout the studyguide students are encouraged to reflect on the ways in which what has been learned might be applied in both explicitly theological and wider cultural contexts for example they might be asked to think of a film or book that seems to express elements of existentialism or postmodernism or to describe how something very like the extreme subjectivity of idealism can sometimes show itself in Sunday morning worship
