Human Chris Matakas,2014-12-10 In today s society where our distractions are only rivaled by our affinity toward them modern man is in need of a paradigm shift This book is that shift With an uncanny ability to make accessible the teachings of old Chris Matakas has shed light on the perils facing each of us in today s world and done so in a pleasurable digestible experience From transcending the illusion of self to serving our fellow man the reader is taken on a journey in self exploration toward a more actualized life Whether a beginner or life long student of philosophy this book serves each of its readers as an alternative manual to the human experience All of the proceeds from this book will be donated to Feeding America

Learning to be a Person in Society Peter Jarvis,2012-06-25 Learning is a lifelong process and we are the result of our own learning But how exactly do we learn to be a person through living In this book Peter Jarvis draws together all the aspects of becoming a person into the framework of learning Considering the ongoing nature versus nurture debate over how we become people Jarvis s study of nurture what learning is primarily about builds on a detailed recognition of our genetic inheritance and evolutionary reality It demonstrates the ways in which we become social human beings internalising accommodating and rejecting the culture to which we are exposed both primarily and through electronic mediation while growing and developing as human beings and people As learning theory moves away from traditional single discipline approaches it is possible to place the person at the centre of all thinking about learning by emphasising a multi disciplinary approach This wide ranging study draws on established research from a number of disciplines into the complexities that make us who we are It will appeal to a wide variety of audiences those involved in all fields of education the study of learning and development human resource development psychology theology and the caring professions

Wikiworld Juha Suoranta,Tere Vadén,2009-11-06 Wikiworld explores a revolution in the world of education The way we learn is changing institutionalised learning is transforming into new forms of critical learning and open collaboration This book offers a historical and political framework to think about the future of learning and educational media The authors provide an overview of the use of new technologies and learning practices and assess how the changing nature of education can lead to a more socially just future At the same time they place their analysis of education within a wider social and economic framework of contemporary capitalism

Stop Painful Parenting: Tales from Our Side of the Mat Paul Prendergast,Carol

Davis, LCSW, 2017-01-30 When I opened my first karate school twenty six years ago I would never have thought I would be dealing with parents who grew marijuana had fist fights in my lobby or moms who cheated on their husbands with other moms I never thought I d deal with a mom so drunk she pissed her pants while waiting to pick up her child or a boy who drew pictures with his own poo on the walls of my bathroom My instructor never taught me how to defend myself against these types of attackers It is my hope that by reading this book people will be more conscience of their words and actions when in the presence of their children or other people s children People that become parents guardians coaches teachers mentors or who influence children will become more aware how important their role is Parents must understand if they want to see a change in their child they must be the change they want to see      Semiotic Theory of Learning Andrew Stables, Winfried Nöth, Alin Olteanu, Sébastien Pesce, Eetu Pikkarainen, 2018-05-15 Semiotic Theory of Learning asks what learning is and what brings it about challenging the hegemony of psychological and sociological constructions of learning in order to develop a burgeoning literature in semiotics as an educational foundation Drawing on theoretical research and its application in empirical studies the book attempts to avoid the problematization of the distinction between theory and practice in semiotics It covers topics such as signs significance and semiosis the ontology of learning the limits of learning ecosemiotics ecology and sexuality The book is written by five of the key figures in the semiotics field each committed to the belief that living is a process of interaction through acts of signification with a signifying environment While the authors are agreed on the value of semiotic frameworks the book aims not to present an entirely coherent line in every respect but rather to reflect ongoing scholarship and debates in the area In light of this the book offers a range of possible interpretations of major semiotic theorists unsettling assumptions while offering a fresh and still developing series of perspectives on learning from academics grounded in semiotics Semiotic Theory of Learning is a timely and valuable text that will be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduates working in the fields of educational studies semiotics psychology philosophy applied linguistics and media studies      Life and Death in Early Modern Philosophy Susan James, 2021 This book explores the breadth of philosophical interest in life and death during the early modern period It connects debates in philosophy with the life sciences linking the study of organisms to the practical aspect of philosophy and reminding us that that philosophers were concerned with learning how to live and how to die      Towards a Comprehensive Theory of Human Learning Peter Jarvis, 2012-08-06 As interest grows in theories of lifelong learning not only across society but also as an area of serious academic study the need has arisen for a thorough and critical study of the phenomenon This distillation of the work of renowned writer Peter Jarvis addresses this need looking at the processes involved in human learning from birth to old age and moving the field on from previous unsystematic and mainly psychological studies Instead Jarvis argues that learning is existential and so its study must be complex and interdisciplinary The result is a giant step towards building a complete and integrated theory of how humans learn taking account of existing theories to see if they can be reconciled with a more complex model Applying his expert analytical approach to this wide ranging topic Jarvis looks in detail at learning in the social context the transformation of experience the outcomes of learning learning and action cognitive theories emotions and learning experiential learning Things I Wish I Knew Before My Mom Died Ty Alexander,2017-08-27 Coping With Loss The grieving process Ty Alexander of Gorgeous in Grey is one of the top bloggers today She has a tremendous personal connection with her readers This is never more apparent than when she speaks about her mother The pain of loss is universal Yet we all grieve differently For Alexander the grieving process is one that she lives with day to day Learning from her pain Alexander connects with her readers on a deeply emotional level in her debut book Things I Wish I Knew before My Mom Died Coping with Loss Every Day From grief counseling to sharing insightful true stories Alexander offers comfort reassurance and hope in the face of sorrow Coping with loss In her early 20 s reality smacked Ty in the face She was ill equipped to deal with the emotional and intellectual rollercoaster of dealing with her mom s illness Through her own trial and error she found a way to be a caregiver patient advocate researcher and a grieving daughter She wrote Things I Wish I Knew before My Mom Died Coping with Loss Every Day to help others find the best way to cope and move on however one personally decides what that means Mourning and remembrance In the chapters of this soul touching book mourners will find meaning and wisdom in grieving and the love that will always remain Each chapter is a study and lesson in coping with loss Chapter 1 We ve been duped everyone dies Chapter 2 The truth about my moderately dysfunctional family Chapter 3 The Art Of Losing Chapter 4 The how of grieving Chapter 5 How to be obsessively grateful Chapter 6 Dear Mama Democracy, Lifelong Learning and the Learning Society Peter Jarvis,2008-06-10 This is a book with a difference it produces a completely new perspective on lifelong learning and the learning society and locates them within humanity itself Five themes run through this book Humankind has always been aware of the imperfections of human society as a consequence it has looked back to a mythological past and forward to a utopian future that might be religious political economic or even educational to find something better Lifelong learning as we currently see it is like two sides of the same coin we learn in order to be workers who produce and learn we have a need to consume We then devour the commodities we have produced whilst others take the profits One of the greatest paradoxes of the human condition has been the place of the individual in the group community or conversely how the groups allow the individual to exist rather than stifle individuality Modernity is flawed and the type of society that we currently have which we in the West call a learning society is in need of an ethical overhaul in this late modern age There is a need to bring a different perspective both political and ethical on lifelong learning and the learning society in order to try to understand what the good society and the good life might become In Democracy Lifelong Learning and the Learning Society the third volume of his trilogy on lifelong learning Professor Jarvis expertly addresses the issues that arise from the vision of the learning society The book concludes that since human beings continue to learn so the learning society must be a process within the incomplete project of humanity All three books in the trilogy will be essential reading for students in education HRD and teaching and learning generally in addition to academics and informed practitioners The Lifelong Learning and the Learning Society Trilogy Volume 1 Towards a Comprehensive Theory of Human Learning Volume 2 Globalisation Lifelong Learning and the Learning Society Volume 3 Democracy Lifelong Learning and the Learning Society Peter Jarvis is an internationally renowned expert in the field of adult learning and continuing education He is Professor of Continuing Education at the University of Surrey UK and honorary Adjunct Professor in Adult Education at the University of Georgia USA Teaching, Learning and Education in Late Modernity Peter Jarvis, 2012-06-12 Professor Peter Jarvis has spent over 30 years researching thinking and writing about some of the key and enduring issues in education He has contributed well over 30 books and 200 papers and chapters in books on learning theory adult education and learning continuing professional education nurse education primary school education distance education and third age education In this book he brings together 19 key writings in one place Starting with a specially written Introduction which gives an overview of Peter s career and contextualises his selection within the development of the field the chapters cover Learning Learning and Spirituality Learning and Doing Teaching The End of Modernity Learning in Later Life This book not only shows how Peter s thinking developed during his long and distinguished career it also gives an insight into the development of the fields to which he contributed In the World Library of Educationalists international scholars themselves compile career long collections of what they judge to be their finest pieces extracts from books key articles salient research findings major theoretical and practical contributions so the world can read them in a single manageable volume Readers will be able to follow the themes and strands of their work and see their contribution to the development of a field as well as the development of the field itself Contributors to the series include Richard Aldrich Stephen J Ball John Elliott Elliot Eisner Howard Gardner John Gilbert Ivor F Goodson David Labaree John White E C Wragg Proceedings RMRS, 1998 Our Almost Impossible Universe R. Mirman, 2006 WHY GOD COULD NOT CREATE THE UNIVERSE WITH A DIFFERENT DIMENSION EVEN IF IT WANTED TO or perhaps anything else Perhaps the universe must be the way it is It seems that what is omnipotent is mathematics elementary arithmetic just counting Yet even mathematics is not powerful enough to create a universe there are just too many conditions conflicting Existence is impossible Beyond that for there to be structure is quite inconceivable But the universe does exist there are galaxies stars even the possibility of life That life is possible merely allows it to exist but only with the greatest good fortune does it actually occur Intelligence is vastly less likely ability and technology far more improbable That we are what we are seem so strange inconceivable that we are left merely with wonder and as we seem unable to realize the need for the deepest care responsibility and gratitude We have been given by the unbelievable benevolence of chance no life but life with the most wondrous part of the universe the ability to think to know to create to wonder and thus the demand that we use our most awesome gifts to protect them to protect and preserve the world in which they exist and the life likely so rare if not unique in the universe which has received these astounding favors of chance that has been given by nature its most exalted constituents What we are requires that we enhance what we are what we are part of to see understand and be grateful An exploration of the precise conditions required for the existence of humans in the universe the author does an admirable job delineating the laws of physics without becoming too bogged down in complicated jargon and he maintains a sense of wonder about the unique and random nature of the universe He repeatedly celebrates our highly improbable achievements as a species marveling at our ability to use the language of abstract mathematics to unravel the mysteries of existence the prevailing tone of the narrative is clear and confident marked by a meticulous attention to detail An often fascinating journey through the history of the universe and mankind Kirkus Discoveries      Learning to Live Together David A. Hamburg M.D., Beatrix A. Hamburg M.D., 2004-04-08 With a view to deepening our understanding of sources of hatred and prejudice this book uses a developmental and evolutionary perspective to explore and explain the process by which our beliefs are conveyed to the youngest members of society Discussing the psychological obstacles to peaceful relations between groups the authors focus on the developmental processes by which we can work to diminish ethnocentrism prejudice and hatred which children learn from a very early age Until now scholarship and practice in international relations have gravely neglected crucial psychological aspects of these terrible problems and have not yet explored the educational opportunities related to them Addressing these promising lines of inquiry and innovation this book fosters a more humane and less violent development in childhood and adolescence Educators religious leaders developmental and social psychologists will find this a valuable resource as will a socially concerned segment of the public who are looking for practical ways to work for peace      Modern World Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2023-02-23 In this book we will study about major events and ideas that shaped the modern world including revolutions colonialism industrialization world wars and the rise of nation states      After Eden: A Short History of the World John Charles Chasteen, 2023-11-14 To solve the problems of the twenty first century historian John Charles Chasteen argues that we must first know our shared human story In After Eden prominent Latin American historian John Chasteen presents a concise down to earth fast paced narrative of world history from the Big Bang to the present animated by stories of people from all walks of life and enriched by insightful analysis and the author's extensive world travel To tackle today's major problems of global inequality and environmental degradation Chasteen argues that we must first understand our shared past both the violent and cruel dimensions humanity's inhumanity to itself and the aspirational ones the creation of universal religions and ethical systems the birth of the ideas of individual liberty and freedom the resistance to the excesses of global capitalism the civil rights and decolonization movements and the environmental and social justice movements of today For Chasteen ultimate success hinges on our ability to recognize from our past experiences what is needed for us to live cooperatively and most critically the ways we educate our young people      The New Life Daniel Zanou, 2025-01-08 This book deals with the philosophy of science and the philosophy of religion It is a response to Nietzsche's powerful aphorism God is dead Like the German philosopher we use the same writing style to answer his philosophy In front of apodictic facts when men are still in denial we use aphorism We set the scene in 19th century Europe and evince how Darwin s research destroys the Hegelian idealism The book s primary goal is to show religious people and scientists how the Hegelian dialectic theory is the key to life and eventually explains this God s simulation we call existence We live in a holographic reality and the book exposes the principles that sustain this energy hologram      From Adult Education to the Learning Society Peter Jarvis,2013-01-11 This unique text provides a valuable route map to the development of thinking in adult education and lifelong learning It includes more than twenty five seminal articles from the first two decades of the International Journal of Lifelong Education written by leading authors in the field from the UK the USA Australia and Europe Compiled to show the development of the field the articles are divided into four sections From Ault Education to Lifelong Education and Lifelong Learning to the Learning Society and Beyond The specially written Introduction by the editor contextualises the selection and introduces readers to the main issues and current thinking in the field This is the only text of its kind to demonstrate practice and policy internationally over this period and as the collection of articles are now available in one easy access place this is an excellent resource for students and scholars      The Ego Cycle : .....way the modern world work Ranjeet Singh,2024-02-20 The Ego Cycle The Way the Modern World Works is a book that includes the process that has been followed by humans for over 550 years From the voyage of Columbus to the present numerous events happened Those incidents affected humanity in a lousy approach whether the Western nations progressed However the other countries suffered a lot In this book all those events are related to ego The book begins with an overview which shows how humans developed The five virtues of human character have been defined first and then how humans set different parameters all around the world been shown We know humans are not treated equally because they developed a lot of macro and micro fences around themselves for the sake of society religion countries and so on All those fences are the worst result of ego Furthermore this book is formatted in a cycle which starts with humans and ends with humans Meanwhile human follows a long journey of changes from where the ego shoots up Ego is firmly holding the modern societies and this book will introduce the journey of ego to the readers Lastly human are not mean to be egoistic But the way they built up they harmed Mother Nature is completely devastating Billions of people suffered and are still suffering because of the hardship that humans brought during the progression is shown in an order      The 4 Quarters of Life AiR - Atman in Ravi,2021-10-20 Life has a purpose To discover this purpose we must divide our life into 4 Quarters The First Quarter is all about Learning while the Second Quarter focuses on Earning The Third Quarter is meant for us to start our journey towards the ultimate goal of life Enlightenment and in our final Quarter we must attain this final goal of Enlightenment Enlightenment liberates us from all suffering and from the Karmic cycle of death and rebirth Unfortunately today man only focuses on the first two Quarters of life As a result he suffers This book will inspire you to live a complete life Quarter by Quarter so that you can live with bliss and everlasting happiness
