Africa: Regional Overview of Food Security and Nutrition 2016 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2018-05-28 Since 2015 sub Saharan Africa has experienced severe climate induced disruptions affecting the livelihoods of tens of millions of poor households This has been compounded by civil strife and conflicts trans boundary plant and animal pests and diseases and socio economic shocks that could reverse years of progress The Routledge International Handbook of Race, Culture and Mental Health Roy Moodley, Eunjung Lee, 2020-10-27 This handbook presents a thorough examination of the intricate interplay of race ethnicity and culture in mental health historical origins subsequent transformations and the discourses generated from past and present mental health and wellness practices The text demonstrates how socio cultural identities including race gender class sexual orientation disability religion and age intersect with clinical work in a range of settings Case vignettes and recommendations for best practice help ground each in a clinical focus guiding practitioners and educators to actively increase their understanding of non Western and indigenous healing techniques as well as their awareness of contemporary mental health theories as a product of Western culture with a particular historical and cultural perspective The international contributors also discuss ways in which global mental health practices transcend racial cultural ethnic linguistic and political boundaries The Routledge International Handbook of Race Culture and Mental Health is an essential resource for students researchers and professionals alike as it addresses the complexity of mental health issues from a critical global perspective Psychological Intervention for Suicidal Ideation, Behavior, and Attempted Suicide Tushar Singh , Sayo Hamatani, Kazuki Matsumoto, 2024-10-24 Taking one s own life is called suicide and approximately 800 000 people worldwide commit suicide every year because of various reasons according to the World Health Organization Poor mental health is a major driver of suicide especially in high income countries People who commit suicide perform impulsive destructive behaviors beyond their ability to cope with their stressors currently there is a need to establish effective psychotherapies for the same Suicidal ideation and behavior are involved in attempted suicide and psychotherapies that specifically intervenes in suicidal ideation may reduce suicidal risk In this special issue we would like to collect knowledge regarding psychotherapies cognitive behavioral models wherein the evidence of their effectiveness has been generated by research and clinical trials We expect the papers collected in this special issue to be a source of good ideas and solutions Transforming Healthcare in Africa Robert Dibie, 2025-01-14 The current available books and literature that shed light on health policies in many African countries are limited Transforming Healthcare in Africa A Comparative Analysis by Professor Robert Dibie examines the key players in the health system game in many African countries It explores the regulatory regimes that impact the health systems such as the Ministry of Health It also provides few case studies of the relationship between the government the environment and their citizens Apart from filling the gap in the healthcare policy in African literature the authors also seek to examine the impacts of weak health policies and the inability to effectively formulate solid initiatives for capacity building that could lead to enhanced healthcare delivery for all their citizens Thus Dibley's book provides evidence to inform scholarly discussion on the best approaches to strengthen healthcare delivery and public health capacity in many African countries The book also sought to answer six research questions 1 How is healthcare delivery perceived by African countries 2 How are healthcare policies implemented in urban and rural regions or local governments in African countries 3 To what extent are current health services delivered to respond to all citizens needs in African countries 4 What is the current capacity for rural or local governments to effectively engage in health service delivery 5 How can citizens living in rural and urban regions be empowered in the health development delivery system and 6 Which is the best evidence based management system adopted to improve affordable healthcare system in many African countries It also fills the gap in the literature of health systems in Africa

The Report: Kenya 2017, As the largest economy in the EAC and COMESA in terms of GDP Kenya has positioned itself as a major economic power in sub Saharan Africa Traditionally a largely agrarian economy Kenya has quickly entrenched its position as a manufacturing logistics and technology hub in the region and this diversification forms a solid platform from which the government can generate economic growth over the coming years The resolution of the electoral process improving business confidence and strong private consumption are likely to support GDP expansion over 2018 and into 2019 In April 2018 the IMF estimated the economy would expand by 5.5% in 2018 and 6% in 2019 compared to 4.8% in 2017

Health Disparities, Diversity, and Inclusion Patti Renee Rose, 2017-02-16 Despite the many public health successes over the last century health disparity continues to exist in American society Health disparities diversity and inclusion context controversies and solutions is an incisive examination of this important topic The book carefully explores steps that must be taken to prepare for the rapidly changing demographics in American society including immigration reform emerging majorities and evidence based information substantiating the fact that diversity matters in terms of the provision of health care Page 4 de la couverture

Toolkit for analysis and use of routine health facility data. Integrated health services analysis World Health Organization, 2023-06-16 This document provides guidance on the integrated analysis and use at national level of data collected from health facilities through routine health information systems RHIS The integrated approach provides general health service planners and managers with an overarching or cross cutting view of health services based on a limited set of tracer indicators that represent multiple health programmes and service components Objectives The guidance will promote an understanding of the concept of integrated analysis of health services using RHIS data the advantages of using a limited set of standardized indicators and visualizations analysis and presentation of the data in ways that are easily understood and useful to health service planners and managers the importance of and approaches to assessing data quality some considerations for interpretation of RHIS data Target audience This guidance targets workers in ministries of health as well as other organizations including decision makers using RHIS data for general planning management and review of health services programme staff wanting to share key programme findings with a general audience staff responsible for the analysis and presentation of health data including analysts and monitoring and evaluation officers health information systems staff involved in data management and data quality improvement staff of national health observatories research institutes and academic institutions involved in RHIS data Home, School, and Community Collaboration Kathy B. Grant, Julie A. Ray, 2018-02-27 Filled with practical suggestions and reflective opportunities this book uses the culturally responsive family support model as a framework to prepare readers to work with children from diverse families WHO global report on trends in prevalence of tobacco use 2000-2025 World Health Organization, 2020-02-17 African Women, ICT and Neoliberal Politics Assata Zerai, 2018-09-28 How can we promote people centered governance in Africa Cell phones information and communications technology ICT are shown to be linked to neoliberal understandings of more democratic governance structures defined by the Worldwide Governance Indicators as the rule of law corruption control regulation quality government effectiveness political stability no violence and voice and accountability However these indicators fall short they do not emphasize gender equity or pro poor policies Writing from an African feminist scholar activist perspective Assata Zerai emphasizes the voices of women in two ways 1 she examines how women's access to ICT makes a difference to the success of people centered governance structures and 2 she demonstrates how African women's scholarship too often marginalized must be used to expand and redefine the goals and indicators of democratic governance in African countries Challenging the status quo that praises the contributions of cell phones to the diffusion of knowledge and resultant better governance in Africa this book is an important read for scholars of politics and technology gender and politics and African Studies Displacees and Health: Issues and Challenges. Norvy Paul, 2021-03-17 Displacees and Health Issues and Challenges deals with issues of health and challenges in the life of displaced people of the world This is a collective work of the experts in this field aiming at sketching the life of the displacees either caused by development armed conflict racial conflict or disasters Some of the areas it deals with are Health issues constraints and emerging diseases among refugees Governmental and non governmental steps and challenges to health service delivery Forced migrants or refugees and health issues as a developmental challenge Sustainable development goals and refugees Poverty and health issues Internally displaced people and mental health issues Displacement and stigma Social alienation Social exclusion and marginalization Social work interventions among the displaced people for quality rehabilitations Rehabilitation of displacees and health service delivery challenges Displaced or refugee women children Aged and the vulnerable and health service for quality of life Refugees and health issues responses from local national international bodies or institutions Towards better health and better human living challenges towards reconstruction of displaced or refugees Health in relation to gender vulnerability human rights disability of the displaced Food security in displacement and rehabilitation issues and challenges and Literature and health of the displaced Nothing But Nets Kirsten Moore-Sheeley, 2023-12-05 How insecticide treated bed nets became a staple of global public health initiatives and reshaped health practices in Africa and beyond Distributed to millions of people annually across Africa and the global south insecticide treated bed nets have become a cornerstone of malaria control and twenty first century global health initiatives Despite their seemingly obvious public health utility however these chemically infused nets and their rise to prominence were anything but inevitable In Nothing But Nets Kirsten Moore Sheeley untangles the complicated history of insecticide treated nets as it unfolded transnationally and in Kenya specifically a key site of insecticide treated net research to reveal how the development of this intervention was deeply enmeshed with the emergence of the contemporary global health enterprise While public health workers initially conceived of nets as a stopgap measure that could be tailored to impoverished rural health systems in the early 1980s nets became standardized market goods with the potential to save lives and promote economic development globally This shift attracted donor resources for malaria control amid the rise of neoliberal regimes in international development but it also perpetuated a paradigm of fighting malaria and poverty at the level of individual consumers Africans experiences with insecticide treated nets illustrate the limitations of this paradigm and provide a warning for the precariousness of malaria control efforts today Drawing on archival published and oral historical evidence from three continents Moore Sheeley reveals the important role Africans have played in shaping global health science and technology In placing both insecticide treated nets and Africa at the center of global health history this book sheds new light on how and why commodity based health interventions have become so entrenched as solutions to global disease control as well as the challenges these interventions pose for at risk populations

Global report on the state of dietary data Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, Intake - Center for dietary assessment, 2022-03-09

Diet and nutrition are critical to health well being and longevity The economic and health burdens associated with poor quality diets are a worldwide concern but for low and middle income countries LMICs the long term impact of these burdens has the potential to be especially devastating Many of these LMICs are currently grappling with the deepening multiple burdens of malnutrition with undernutrition nutrient inadequacies and overweight and obesity often presenting simultaneously in communities households and even in single individuals Time relevant data is a necessary and critical component of any process or initiative that aims to ensure healthy diets Robust data on what people eat in a country enables an understanding of current food consumption practices and provides an evidence based foundation for the design and implementation of targeted and well informed actions policies and messaging to address the key issues related to healthy eating The purpose of this report is to take stock and celebrate the collection and use of dietary data in LMICs and generate further momentum for investment in government led dietary surveys in LMICs Section 1 provides a global overview of dietary surveys carried out in LMICs from 1980 through 2019 analysing key characteristics and trends over time Section 2 celebrates the increased investment in dietary surveys in LMICs by highlighting country stories related to dietary survey initiation implementation and data use Section 3 is aimed at generating further momentum for investment in government led dietary surveys in LMICs by illustrating through data visualizations the type of information dietary data can provide for policy makers The Genetic and Environmental Basis for Diseases in Understudied
