Education and Religion Keith Watson, William I. Ozanne, 2013-09-13 In most countries whether secular or otherwise education and religion are closely interlinked and no matter how hard the state tries it can be very difficult to remove the ties between them This book investigates the links between education religion and politics The dominant feature in creating a common culture between peoples each of which has its own distinct heritage and practices is religion Globalisation is leading to a redefinition of the state community and local identity this latter often perceived as resistance against the forces of unity whether through culture economic activity or language Recent world events have focused attention on the interplay between education religion and politics like never before Even more pertinent is the fact that the involvement of politics in decisions about religion and education is often central and impossible to disentangle Education and Religion covers all the major religious traditions Buddhist Christian Jewish Hindu Muslim Sikh and cites global examples throughout the world It aims to understand the underlying complexities in the struggle to reconcile education religion and politics in an informative and sensitive way This book was originally published as a special issue of Comparative Education

Conceptualizing Mass Violence Navras J. Aafreedi,Priya Singh,2021-05-13 Conceptualizing Mass Violence draws attention to the conspicuous inability to inhibit mass violence in myriads forms and considers the plausible reasons for doing so Focusing on a postcolonial perspective the volume seeks to popularize and institutionalize the study of mass violence in South Asia The essays explore and deliberate upon the varied aspects of mass violence namely revisionism reconstruction atrocities trauma memorialization and literature the need for Holocaust education and the criticality of dialogue and reconciliation The language content and characteristics of mass violence genocide explicitly reinforce its aggressive transmuting and multifaceted character and the consequent necessity to understand the same in a nuanced manner The book is an attempt to do so as it takes episodes of mass violence for case study from all inhabited continents from the twentieth century to the present The volume studies consciously enforced mass violence through an interdisciplinary approach and suggests that dialogue aimed at reconciliation is perhaps the singular agency via which a solution could be achieved from mass violence in the global context The volume is essential reading for postgraduate students and scholars from the interdisciplinary fields of Holocaust and Genocide Studies History Political Science Sociology World History Human Rights and Global Studies
