Teaching Landscape History Jan Woudstra, David Jacques, Robert Holden, 2023-11-29 Landscape history is changing in content and style to address the issues of today Experienced teachers and authors on the history of gardens and landscapes come together in this new volume to share ideas on the future of teaching history in departments of landscape architecture archaeology geography and allied subjects Design history remains important but this volume brings to the fore the increasing importance of environmental history economic history landscape history cultural landscapes environmental justice and decolonisation ideas of sustainability and climate change amelioration which may all be useful in serving the needs of a widening range of students in an increasingly complex world The main themes include what history should we narrate in the education of landscape architects how can we recognise counter narratives and our own bias how should we engage the students in the history of their chosen profession how can designers and researchers be persuaded of the relevance of history teaching to theory and practice and what resources do we need to develop teaching of landscape histories This book will be of interest to anyone teaching courses on landscape architecture urban design horticulture garden design architectural history cultural geography and more

Historic Cultural Landscapes of Oklahoma Dr. Charles L. W. Leider, 2019 Historic landscapes have often been ignored in historic preservation In 1987 Dr Charles L W Leider asked design professionals and the public to nominate significant historic cultural landscapes in Oklahoma As a result of this effort 47 significant historic landscapes were identified Students in Dr Leider's historic preservation course at Oklahoma State University OSU conducted an inventory and analysis of these sites and over a 25 year period selected and completed 18 case studies as measured and interpreted drawings including Villa Philbrook 101 Ranch Oklahoma Civic Center and Utica Square in Tulsa All of the case studies have been recorded with the Historic American Landscapes Survey HALS of the US National Park Service and placed in the US Library of Congress as well as being presented in this book     Landscape Theory in Design Susan Herrington, 2016-12-08 Phenomenology Materiality Cybernetics Palimpsest Cyborgs Landscape Urbanism Typology Semiotics Deconstruction the minefield of theoretical ideas that students must navigate today can be utterly confusing and how do these theories translate to the design studio Landscape Theory in Design introduces theoretical ideas to students without the use of jargon or an assumption of extensive knowledge in other fields and in doing so links these ideas to the processes of design In five thematic chapters Susan Herrington explains the theoretic groundings of the theory of philosophy why it matters to design an example of the theory in a work of landscape architecture from the twentieth and twenty first centuries debates surrounding the theory particularly as they elaborate modern and postmodern thought and primary readings that can be read as companions to her text An extensive glossary of theoretical terms also adds a vital contribution to students comprehension of theories relevant to the design of landscapes and gardens Covering the design of over 40 landscape architects architects and designers in 111 distinct projects from 20 different countries Landscape Theory in Design is essential reading for any student of the landscape     The Routledge Handbook of Landscape Architecture Education Diedrich Bruns, Stefanie Hennecke, 2022-11-15 In this handbook 60 authors senior and junior educators and researchers from six continents provide an overview of 200 years of landscape architectural education They tell the stories of schools and people of visions and of experiments that constitute landscape architecture education heritage Through taking an international perspective the handbook centers inclusivity with an appreciation for how education develops in different political and societal contexts Part I introduces the field of education history research including research approaches and international research exchange Spanning more than 100 years Parts II and III investigate and compare early and recent histories of landscape architecture education in different countries and schools In Part IV the book offers new perspectives for landscape architecture education Education research presents a substantial opportunity for challenging studies to increase the pedagogic and didactic the academic and historic and the disciplinary knowledge basis Through a boundary crossing approach these studies about landscape architecture education provide a reference to teachers and students policymakers and administrators who strive for innovative holistic and interdisciplinary practice     Landscape Architectural Research M. Elen Deming, Simon Swaffield, 2011-04-12 A practical single source guide to successful strategies for landscape architecture research As the scope of landscape architecture expands to engage with other disciplines and streams of information directing this field continue to grow and diversify it becomes increasingly important for landscape architects to be able to implement a range of effective research strategies when seeking creating and validating knowledge Landscape Architecture Research offers a framework for advancing better design thinking solutions by supplying readers with a system of inquiry tactics that open up a wider range of research possibilities With a logical and innovative approach that favors legitimacy of knowledge based on collective grounded practices rather than strict adherence to protocols drawn only from scientific models this comprehensive illustrated guide produces a sound argument for establishing a new paradigm for legitimizing research quality Landscape Architecture Research presents Case studies that show how the range of presented research strategies have been successfully used in practice New perspective on the relationship between theory research practice and critique a relationship that is specific to landscape architecture Detailed coverage of the ways that new knowledge is produced through research activities and practical innovations in landscape architecture The first and only book on this topic of growing importance in landscape architecture Landscape Architecture Research keeps professionals and students in step with the latest developments in landscape architecture and delivers a dynamic and flexible game plan for verifying the integrity of their work Architecture History, Theory and Preservation Arleen Pabón-Charneco, 2020-11-29 Architecture History Theory and Preservation critically explores the historic development theoretical underpinnings and conservation practices of architecture Complete with 170 full color images this volume presents architectural and urban examples from Prehistory to the Middle Ages chronologically and thematically examining contextual issues that provide each period with distinctive expressions The special features structural systems materials and construction technologies are analyzed as well as how the international community deals with the task of interpreting and preserving certain historic properties This publication provides professors and students of architecture art history historic preservation and related fields with an integrated view of architecture using historical theoretical and conservation perspectives As an architect architectural historian and preservationist herself Dr Pab n Charneco weaves a field of relationships regarding each building creating a silent yet empowering bridge between past and present The Routledge Handbook of Teaching Landscape Karsten Jørgensen, Nilgöl Karadeniz, Elke Mertens, Richard Stiles, 2019-03-04 Written in collaboration with the European Council of Landscape Architecture Schools ECLAS and LE NOTRE The Routledge Handbook of Teaching Landscape provides a wide ranging overview of teaching landscape subjects from geology to landscape design reflecting different perspectives and practices at university level landscape curricula Focusing on the didactics of landscape education this fully illustrated handbook presents and discusses pedagogy teaching traditions experimental teaching methods and new teaching principles The book is structured into three parts reading the landscape representing the landscape and transforming the landscape Contributions from leading experts in the field such as Simon Bell Marc Treib J rg Rekittke and Susan Herrington explore landscape analysis history and theory design visualisation creativity and art planning studio teaching field trips and site engineering Aimed at engaging academic researchers and instructors across disciplines such as landscape architecture geography ecology planning and archaeology this book is a must have guide to landscape pedagogy as it stands today A Cultural History of Objects in the Modern Age Laurie Wilkie, John Chenoweth, 2022-08-31 A Cultural History of Objects in the Modern Age covers the period 1900 to today a time marked by massive global changes in production transportation and information sharing in a post colonial world New materials and inventions from plastics to the digital to biotechnology have created unprecedented scales of disruption shifting and blurring the categories and meanings of the object If the 20th century demonstrated that humans can be treated like things whilst things can become ever more human where will the 21st century take us The 6 volume set of the Cultural History of Objects examines how objects have been created used interpreted and set loose in the world over the last 2500 years Over this time the West has developed particular attitudes to the material world at the centre of which is the idea of the object The themes covered in each volume are objecthood technology economic objects everyday objects art architecture bodily objects object worlds Laurie A Wilkie is Professor at the University of California Berkeley USA John M Chenoweth is Associate Professor at the University of Michigan Dearborn USA Volume 6 in the Cultural History of Objects set General Editors Dan Hicks and William Whyte     Directory of Cultural Resource Education Programs at Colleges, Universities, Craft and Trade Schools in the United States ,1994 This directory provides information about training programs or education programs that last from six months to several years and promote cultural heritage of U S education There are three sections in this directory Section 1 Discipline Definitions and Education Programs or Directories defines the groups of related terms identifies the schools or colleges that offer them and refers the reader to additional directories or resources Section 2 State by State Program Descriptions describes the schools or colleges in more detail and includes a mailing address and the types of programs offered Section 3 Additional Education Directories provides greater detail on the additional directories and resources This directory is intended for high school and undergraduate level students and their counselors and advisors seeking advanced training related to the preservation and management of cultural resources and cultural heritage EH     Directory of Cultural Resource Education Programs DIANE Publishing Company,1995-07 Intended to complement and expand on the Preservation Education Supplement prepared by the National Council and printed each October in the National Trust for Historic Preservation newsletter Historic Preservation News Intended for students at the high school or undergraduate level who are looking for advanced training relating to the preservation and management of cultural resources and cultural heritage in the U S Figures and photos     The Greening of London, 1920-2000 Matti O. Hannikainen,2017-05-15 The long term development of public green spaces such as parks public gardens and recreation grounds in London during the twentieth century is a curiously neglected subject despite the fact that various kinds of green spaces cover huge areas in cities in the UK today This book explores how and why public green spaces have been created and used in London and what actors have been involved in their evolution during the course of the twentieth century Building on case studies of the contemporary boroughs of Camden and Southwark and making use of a wealth of archival material the author takes us through the planning and creation stages to the intended and actual uses and ongoing management of the spaces By highlighting the rise and fall of municipal authorities and the impact of neo liberalism after the 1970s the book also deepens our understanding of how London has been governed planned and ruled during the twentieth century It makes a crucial contribution to academic as well as political discourse on the history and present role of green space in sustainable cities      Architecture and the Nazi Cultural Landscape David H. Haney, 2022-09-13 This book traces cultural landscape as the manifestation of the state and national community under the Nazi regime and how the Nazi era produced what could be referred to as a totalitarian cultural landscape For the Nazi regime cultural landscape was indeed a heritage resource but it was much more than that cultural landscape was the nation The project of Nazi racial purification and cultural renewal demanded the physical reshaping and reconceptualization of the existing environment to create the so called new Nazi cultural landscape One of the most important components of this was a set of monumental sites thought to embody blood and soil beliefs through the harmonious synthesis of architecture and landscape This special group of landscape bound architectural complexes was interconnected by the new autobahn highway system itself thought to be a monumental work embedded in nature Behind this intentionally aestheticized view of the nation as cultural landscape lay the all pervasive system of deception and violence that characterized the emerging totalitarian state This is the first historical study to consider the importance of these monumental sites together with the autobahn as evidence of key Nazi cultural and geographic strategies during the pre war years This book concludes by examining racial and nationalistic themes underlying cultural landscape concepts today against this historic background      Cultural Resource Management Thomas F. King, 2020-02-03 Stressing the interdisciplinary public policy oriented character of Cultural Resource Management CRM which is not merely applied archaeology this short relatively uncomplicated introduction is aimed at emerging archaeologists Drawing on fifty plus years experience and augmented by the advice of fourteen collaborators Cultural Resource Management explains what CRM archaeologists do and explores the public policy ethical and pragmatic implications of doing it for a living      The Routledge Companion to Criticality in Art, Architecture, and Design Chris Brisbin, Myra Thiessen, 2018-10-03 The Routledge Companion to Criticality in Art Architecture and Design presents an in depth exploration of criticism and criticality in theory and practice across the disciplines of art architecture and design Professional criticism is a vital part of understanding the cultural significance of designed objects and environments that we engage with on a daily basis yet there is evidence to show that this practice is changing This edited volume investigates how practitioners researchers educators and professionals engage with think about and value the practice of critique With contributions from a multi disciplinary authorship from nine countries the UK USA Australia India Netherlands Switzerland South Africa Belgium and Denmark this companion provides a wide range of leading perspectives evaluating the landscape of criticality and how it is being shaped by technological and social advances Illustrated with over 60 black and white images and structured into five sections The Routledge Companion to Criticality in Art Architecture and Design is a comprehensive volume for researchers educators and students exploring the changing role of criticism through interdisciplinary perspectives      Architecture Inspired by Nature María Rosa Cervera Sardá, Elena-Codina Duşoiu, Tana Nicoleta Lascu, 2023-08-25 The book brings together the research completed during 10 editions of International Seminars of

Bionics organized by the School of Architecture of the University of Alcal de Henares Madrid several of them in partnership with the Ion Mincu University of Architecture and Urbanism Bucharest carried out in Spain and in Romania The articles here consider advanced bionic design principles implementing them to an impressive variety of application fields including but not limited to urban planning and landscape public space architecture and building structures design and detailing application of natural dynamic processes bio digital architecture innovative materials based on living organisms micro algae and nano modified materials A particular focus is given to light and perception of light To illustrate the principles developed this contributed volume includes descriptions and full color images of the experimental projects created during the workshops held in the framework of these ISB meetings Learning from Nature Integrating Bionics 2009 Adaptability Efficiency and Biostructures 2010 Bionics and Innovation 2011 Forms and Structures Inspired by Nature 2016 2017 Furniture Inspired by Natural Models 2018 Relation between Structure and Envelope Light Structures 2019 Light from Nature to Architecture Structures Inspired in Nature 2020 Light in Architecture and Design A Bionic Perspective 2021 Sustainable Thinking and Bionics 2022      Cultural Landscape Report for the Boston Harbor Islands, Boston Harbor Islands National & State Park, Boston, Massachusetts Olmsted Center for Landscape Preservation (U.S.),2017
