Emperor Zhu Yuanzhang's Eulogy of the Prophet Muhammad Abdul Karim Bangura, 2022-09-06 This book is about the Hundred Word Eulogy a 100 character praise of Islam and Prophet Muhammad written by Zhu Yuanzhang who reigned as the Hongwu Emperor of China from 1368 to 1398 The analysis of the eulogy is augmented with relevant Islamic texts The book has become quite revered by many Muslim individuals and organizations across the globe Yet no work exists that has systematically analyzed the text The purpose of this book then is to fill this vacuum Methods from the fields of history literary analysis and pragmatic linguistics are employed to provide multidisciplinary and comprehensive analyses of the text undergirded by the notion of meaning

Assessment in the Second Language Writing Classroom Deborah Crusan, 2010-07 Assessment in the Second Language Writing Classroom is a teacher and prospective teacher friendly book uncomplicated by the language of statistics The book is for those who teach and assess second language writing in several different contexts the IEP the developmental writing classroom and the sheltered composition classroom In addition teachers who experience a mixed population or teach cross cultural composition will find the book a valuable resource Other books have thoroughly covered the theoretical aspects of writing assessment but none have focused as heavily as this book does on pragmatic classroom aspects of writing assessment Further no book to date has included an in depth examination of the machine scoring of writing and its effects on second language writers Crusan not only makes a compelling case for becoming knowledgeable about L2 writing assessment but offers the means to do so Her highly accessible thought provoking presentation of the conceptual and practical dimensions of writing assessment both for the classroom and on a larger scale promises to engage readers who have previously found the technical detail of other works on assessment off putting as well as those who have had no previous exposure to the study of assessment at all

Questions Veneeta Dayal, 2016-11-03 This book synthesizes and integrates 40 years of research on the semantics of questions and its interface with pragmatics and syntax conducted within the formal semantics tradition A wide range of topics are covered including weak strong exhaustiveness maximality functional answers single multiple trapped list answers embedding predicates quantificational variability concealed questions weak islands polar and alternative questions negative polarity and non canonical questions The literature on this rich set of topics theoretically diverse and scattered across multiple venues is often hard to assimilate Veneeta Dayal drawing on her own research brings them together for the first time in a coherent concise and well structured whole Each chapter begins with a non technical introduction to the issues discussed semantically sophisticated accounts are then presented incrementally with the major points summarized at the end of each section Written in an accessible style this book provides both a guide to one of the most vibrant areas of research in natural language and an account of how this area of study is developing It will be a unique resource for the novice and expert alike and seeks to appeal to a variety of readers without compromising depth and breadth of coverage Language George Melville Bolling, Bernard Bloch, 2007 Inclusive, Sustainable, and Transformational Education in Arts and Literature Kusubakti Andajani, Sari Karmina, Lidya Amalia Rahmania, 2024-06-05 This book contains the proceedings of The International Seminar on Language Education and Culture ISOLEC 2023 an annual conference hosted by the Faculty of Letters Universitas Negeri Malang With the theme Inclusive Sustainable and Transformational Education in Arts and Literature ISOLEC aims to address key issues such as inclusive education in language arts and culture sustainable education in language arts and culture post pandemic teaching and learning practices corpus based language teaching and research language in media gender and identity pop contemporary and digital culture culture and spirituality multilingualism and translanguaging visual and performing arts oral tradition and local culture and digital literacy and information science This book is a collection of selected articles that were presented at the conference covering issues of arts language and cultures This conference addressed a range of relevant topics including Inclusive Education in Language Arts Culture Sustainable Education in Language Arts Culture Post Pandemic Teaching and Learning Practices Corpus Based Language Teaching and Research Language in Media Gender and Identity Pop Contemporary and Digital Culture Culture and Spirituality Multilingualism and Translanguaging Visual and Performing Arts Oral Tradition Local Culture Digital Literacy and Information Science This proceeding will be of interest to students lecturers teachers and academics who are interested in developing their knowledge in the field of language education and culture Specifically this book will be an interesting read for those who want to reimagine the inclusive and sustainable education Sociocybernetics and Political Theory in a Complex World: Recasting Constitutionalism Roberto Gustavo Mancilla Castro, 2020-08-25 In Sociocybernetics and Political Theory in a Complex World Roberto Mancilla posits that because current political and constitutional theory was crafted since the XVII century in the age of globalisation Google and Big Data other arrangements are needed He proposes a recasting of the ideas of the State Separation of Powers The Public Private Distinction and Constitutionalism by means of cybernetics a body of knowledge that gave way to the technology that we have today This will be done by means of a general introduction to sociocybernetics and complexity and then through the critical dismantling of said concepts of political theory and then proposals imbued with newer ideas Hand Talk Jeffrey E. Davis, 2010-07-29 Describes a unique case of sign language that served as an international language among numerous Native American nations not sharing a common spoken language The book contains the most current descriptions of all levels of the language from phonology to discourse as well as comparisons with other sign languages The SAGE Handbook of Sociolinguistics Ruth Wodak, Barbara Johnstone, Paul E

Kerswill,2011 This Handbook answers a long standing need for an up to date comprehensive international in depth critical survey of the history trajectory data results and key figures involved in sociolinguistics The result is a work of unprecedented coverage and insight It is all here from the foundational contributions to the field to the impact of new media new technologies of communication globalization trans border fluidities and agendas of research A history of English Míša Hejná,George Walkden,2022-06-25 Where does today s English language come from This book takes its readers on a journey back in time from present day varieties to the Old English of Beowulf and beyond Written for students with little or no background in linguistics and reflecting the latest scholarship it showcases the variation and change present throughout the history of English and includes numerous exercises and sample texts for every period The reverse chronological approach taken by this book sets it apart from all existing textbooks of the last fifty years Innovative features also include its focus on variation multilingualism and language contact its use of texts from outside the literary canon and its inclusion of case studies from syntax sociophonetics and historical pragmatics Choice ,2008 Understanding Language through Humor Stanley Dubinsky,Chris Holcomb,2011-09-15 Students often struggle to understand linguistic concepts through examples of language data provided in class or in texts Presented with ambiguous information students frequently respond that they do not get it The solution is to find an example of humour that relies on the targeted ambiguity Once they laugh at the joke they have tacitly understood the concept and then it is only a matter of explaining why they found it funny Utilizing cartoons and jokes illustrating linguistic concepts this book makes it easy to understand these concepts while keeping the reader s attention and interest Organized like a course textbook in linguistics it covers all the major topics in a typical linguistics survey course including communication systems phonetics and phonology morphemes words phrases sentences language use discourses child language acquisition and language variation while avoiding technical terminology 2010 [catalog] Degruyter,2010-12-16 Reviews are an important aspect of scholarly discussion because they help filter out which works are relevant in the yearly flood of publications and are thus influential in determining how a work is received The IBR published again since 1971 as an interdisciplinary international bibliography of reviews it is a unique source of bibliographical information The database contains entries on over 1 2 million book reviews of literature dealing primarily with the humanities and social sciences published in 6 820 mainly European scholarly journals Reviews of more than 560 000 scholarly works are listed The database increases every year by 60 000 entries Every entry contains the following information On the work reviewed author title On the review reviewer periodical year edition page ISSN language subject area in German English Italian Publisher address of journal Directory of Little Magazines and Small Presses Len Fulton,2008 A Register of Bibliographies of the English Language and Literature Clark Sutherland Northup,Joseph Quincy Adams,Andrew Keogh,1925
