Fitch, 1982-12-15 Critics theologians philosophers and psychoanalysts have written several thousand books theses and articles about Camus fiction His first published novel L'Etranger had a unique impact on a whole generation of readers and is other fiction although not as well known has also been influential However Camus fiction so far has not been judged by contemporary critical methods and inter textuality or the study of the interrelationship between Camus own texts has not been examined The Narcissistic Text A Reading of Camus Fiction is the first book devoted to the whole of Camus fiction to adopt this approach Brian Fitch uses the critical tools elaborated in the writings of such French formalists as Barthes Ricardou and Todorov and draws upon the hermeneutic theory of literature developed by Gadamer and Ricoeur As a result the self generating word play or linguistic narcissism of Jonas and the textual narcissism of La Peste are seen to give way in L

Etranger to a situation where the hermeneutic circle is itself contained within the circularity of autorepresentation As for the narcissism of La Chute it concerns the reader himself since what the text provides is a model of the hermeneutic process Fitch thus demonstrates that Camus fiction occupies a significant place in modern literature This volume will be of particular interest to those involved in Camus studies or concerned with contemporary critical methodology and literary theory Text and Intertext in Greek Epic and Drama Jonathan J. Price, Rachel Zelnick-Abramovitz, 2020-08-11 This collection presents 19 interconnected studies on the language history exegesis and cultural setting of Greek epic and dramatic poetic texts Text and their afterlives Intertext in Antiquity Spanning texts from Hittite archives to Homer to Greek tragedy and comedy to Vergil to Celsus the studies here were all written by friends and colleagues of Margalit Finkelberg who are experts in their particular fields and who have all been influenced by her work The papers offer close readings of individual lines and discussion of widespread cultural phenomena Readers will encounter Hittite precedents to the Homeric poems characters in ancient epic analysed by modern cognitive theory the use of Homer in Christian polemic tragic themes of love and murder a history of the Sphinx and more Text and Intertext in Greek Epic and Drama offers a selection of fascinating essays exploring Greek epic drama and their reception and adaption by other ancient authors and will be of interest to anyone working on Greek literature A Text-book of Physiology for Medical Students and Physicians William Henry Howell, 1927 Text and Ritual in the Pentateuch Christophe Nihan, Julia Rhyder, 2021-10-07 The first five books of the Hebrew Bible contain a significant number of texts describing ritual practices Yet it is often unclear how these sources would have been understood or used by ancient audiences in the actual performance of cult This volume explores the processes of ritual textualization the creation of a written version of a ritual in ancient Israel by probing the main conceptual and methodological issues that inform the study of this topic in the Pentateuch This systematic and comparative study of text and ritual in the first five books of the Hebrew Bible maps the main areas of consensus and disagreement among scholars engaged in articulating new models for understanding the relationship between text and ritual and explores the importance of comparative evidence for the study of pentateuchal rituals Topics include ritual textualization in ancient Anatolia Egypt Greece and Mesopotamia the importance of archaeology and materiality for the study of text and ritual in ancient Israel the relationship between ritual textualization and standardization in the Pentateuch the reception of pentateuchal ritual texts in Second Temple writings and rabbinic literature and the relationship between text and ritual in the Dead Sea Scrolls In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume include Dorothea Erbele Kister Daniel K Falk Yitzhaq Feder Christian Frevel William K Gilders Dominique Jaillard Giuseppina Lenzo Lionel Marti Patrick Michel Ridiger Schmitt Jeremy D Smoak and James W Watts Text & Context in Islamic Societies Irene A. Bierman, 2004 A collection of papers from the sixteenth Giorgio Levi Della Vida conference which honored Andre Raymond and Josef van Ess The Spatiotemporal Eschatology of Hebrews Luke Woo, 2024-07-11 There are two coexisting realities classified under New Testament eschatology the temporal and spatial

While much scholarly attention has focused on the temporal Luke Woo argues that the spatial aspect is either neglected or relegated to Platonic or cosmological categories Woo thus seeks to provide a holistic understanding by investigating these realities for believers under the heavenly tabernacle motif in the Epistle to the Hebrews Woo posits that the author of Hebrews presents the heavenly tabernacle and all its high priestly activity in order to eschatologically situate orient and ground believers thus enabling believers to actualize their heavenly priestly identity by serving as priests on earth Woo uses Edward Soja's Tripartite Critical Spatiality to analyze the heavenly tabernacle's Firstspace Secondspace and Thirdspace features found in Hebrews 4:14-8:15-9:1-14 He suggests that Christ in his resurrection and ascension enters an actualized heavenly tabernacle which allows believers to spiritually occupy that sanctuary space in the presence of God establishing a spatial orientation for believers who can identify as heavenly priests and be motivated to serve as such as they live on earth

Sex Work, Text Work Jessica Tanner, 2023-05-15 Though male French authors plotted prostitution to make their names mimicking the surveillance of municipal authorities the sex workers in their books manage to evade efforts to contain them While prostitutes in nineteenth century Paris were subject to municipal laws that policed their bodies and movements writers of the era enlisted them to stake their own claims on both the city and the novel as literary territory Sex Work Text Work Mapping Prostitution in the Nineteenth Century French Novel explores how prostitutes depicted by Émile Zola Joris Karl Huysmans Edmond de Goncourt Adolphe Tabarant and Charles Louis Philippe write back confounding civil and literary efforts to contain them in space and in narrative In city regulated brothels brasseries femmes Haussmannian boulevards and the novel itself working class prostitutes served to reinforce the boundaries of social inclusion and exclusion And yet Jessica Tanner contends even the novels that most explicitly aligned with the disciplinary logic of regulated prostitution make space for a distinctly literary form of resistance these women elude or disrupt the mapping that would claim them as literary territory revealing their authors failure to secure their narratives as property Tanner pushes back against the critical tendency to attribute agency only to courtesans who became published authors and forwards a new framework for understanding the political work novels engage in as they circulate Observing that debates about the regulation of prostitution surfaced in tandem with racialized anxieties about the boundaries of the French nation Tanner ultimately expands that framework to the history of French colonialism and the politics of immigration in the current day This book shows that while sex workers have been recruited to mark the borders of civic and moral life prostitution can also make space for more inclusive forms of community both in the novel and in the world beyond its bounds Context and Text

Kevin W. Irwin, 2018-07-12 One of the most influential works in the debate over the concept and definitions of liturgical theology Context and Text by Monsignor Kevin W Irwin is now available in a completely rewritten new edition In light of the historical theological and pastoral mandates of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy Context and Text is both a proposal for and an example of an investigation of the Church's liturgical praxis from a liturgical theological perspective This second edition which includes an expanded introduction covers new liturgical and ecclesial contexts resulting from newly promulgated liturgies further research in method for liturgical studies consideration for changes in the cultural contexts in which people celebrate the liturgy Besides brand new chapters on time and sacramentality and additions to the chapter on the arts this edition also considers the ongoing texts and contexts of the liturgy as always a new event in the life and ongoing discussion of liturgical theology within Christianity An Introduction to Homotopy Theory , Bulletin (new Series) of the American Mathematical Society ,1900 Early Modern Women on Metaphysics Emily Thomas,2018-03-15 The work of women philosophers in the early modern period has traditionally been overlooked yet their writing on topics such as reality time mind and matter holds valuable lessons for our understanding of metaphysics and its history This volume of new essays explores the work of nine key female figures Bathsua Makin Anna Maria van Schurman Elisabeth of Bohemia Margaret Cavendish Anne Conway Damaris Cudworth Masham Mary Astell Catharine Trotter Cockburn and milie Du Ch telet Investigating issues from eternity to free will and from body to natural laws the essays uncover long neglected perspectives and demonstrate their importance for philosophical debates both then and now Combining careful philosophical analysis with discussion of the intellectual and historical context of each thinker they will set the agenda for future enquiry and will appeal to scholars and students of the history of metaphysics science religion and feminism Bulletin of the American Mathematical Society ,1900 The Protean Text Kimberlee Anne Campbell,2019-06-26 Originally published in 1988 The Protean Text looks at the shifting evolution of medieval texts and how changing social and aesthetic values were depicted in the literature of the period The book examines how this was reflected in the reworking and rewriting of texts a common practice in medieval literature as various groups adapted existing legends to their own socio aesthetic needs Such textual fluidity often resulted in a proliferation of versions This tendency to experience the text in protean terms is intrinsic to medieval literary expression This book uses the legend of Doon and Olive to discuss the protean text and uses the diverse series of extant versions available to enhance our understanding of the possibilities of literary shift and modulation through this period Universal Singular Sonia Curnier,2022-11-21 A critical introduction to the design of public spaces The way public spaces are designed reflects the period in which they were created However in our globalized world of experience and images the desire for uniqueness tends to achieve the opposite increasingly designers of open spaces resort to the same devices and thereby distance themselves from the urban context The author analyzes ten outstanding contemporary designs of public spaces in Europe in terms of their function in the urban context and what materials are used for their implementation In interviews with the designers she retraces the changes of the concepts during the design stage of the projects underpinning her findings with numerous sketches In addition her research focuses on how the projects were received in the community Learning from designers of outstanding public spaces in Europe Numerous unpublished design sketches A clear guide to urban design Also available in a French edition Scientific and Technical Books and Serials in
