Game, Set, Life Albert Stark, 2025-02-22 In 1969 tennis great Arthur Ashe collaborating with others founded the National Junior Tennis and Learning (NJTL) network. It aims to use tennis as a tool to teach young people how to be successful leaders, collaborative teammates, and productive citizens. In Game Set Life author Albert Stark draws on his experiences as a national level tennis player and then coach, mentor, and board member of NJTL of Trenton, New Jersey, to share personal stories from some of those most empowered by the organization. Each story in this history is a testament to how dedication can inspire dreams and unlock potential for every individual. Through the combined efforts of coaches, players, mentors, and volunteers, NJTL of Trenton has built a powerful community that makes a significant impact every day. Perfect for readers interested in sports education, social justice education, and the intersection of those, Game Set Life offers an example of an incredibly successful community effort. For the past fourteen years, every graduate from the NJTLT program has been admitted to a college or technical school, many with scholarships and grants. With Game Set Life as a blueprint, other NJTL chapters may also feel compelled to share their stories or consider their own greater potential to fully realize the fundamental mission of NJTLT to enrich the lives of under-resourced youth through innovative tennis education and mentoring programs.
