Deborah Crusan Wright State University USA Teaching and Learning Argumentative Writing in High School English Language Arts Classrooms George E. Newell, David Bloome, Alan Hirvela, 2015-06-05 Focused on the teaching and learning argumentative writing in grades 9-12, this important contribution to literacy education research and classroom practice offers a new perspective, a set of principled practices and case studies of excellent teaching. The case studies illustrate teaching and learning argumentative writing as the construction of knowledge and new understandings about experiences, ideas, and texts. Six themes key to teaching argumentative writing as a thoughtful, multi-leveled practice for deep learning and expression are presented: teaching and learning argumentative writing as social practice; teachers' epistemological beliefs about argumentative writing; variations in instructional chains; instructional conversations in support of argumentative writing; deep learning and appreciation of multiple perspectives; contextualized analysis of argumentative writing and the teaching and learning of argumentative writing; and the construction of rationalities.

Evergreen: a Guide to Writing with Readings Fawcett, 2004 A Guide to Writing in English as a Second Or Foreign Language Dan J. Tannacito, 1995 This bibliography offers English as a Second Language (ESL) and English as a Foreign Language (EFL) specialists and non-specialists a listing of almost 3,500 works in the field of writing in ESL/EFL at all educational levels from 1937 through 1993. It includes works focusing on how non-native speakers write in English, how they learn to write in English, how ESL and native English speaker NES compositions compare, how English is taught in contexts where it is used as a second or foreign language, and instructional materials developed to support writing in a second foreign language. Citations include bibliographies, monographs, textbooks, periodicals, dissertations, and some unannotated master's theses, conference papers, and Educational Resources Information Center (ERIC) documents. An introductory section and a list of native languages addressed in the works precede the annotated entries. Author and subject indexes are also included. MSE

Teaching English, How To.....: Raymond Stopper, Shirley DeLano Ryan, 2004-07-19 Teaching English: How To emphasizes three fundamental teaching techniques: directing, reading assignments, modeling skills, and using students' questions to motivate learning and discussion. Three special features are: daily ten-minute writing sessions to improve style and correctness; preparing students for the SAT 20-minute essay; and a problem-centered grammar program designed to be applied to writing. This book contains specific recommendations for teaching almost every aspect of secondary English.
