2. Answers will vary. (Sample student answer: She is 16, and will turn 17 next week; she is feisty and opinionated, but soft and a little romantic; she is mysterious and aloof, and believed to be anti-social by society.)
3. He remembers when he was a child and had a power failure. His mother lit a candle and Montag had a moment of both physical and mental illumination. They were enjoying one another's company in the dark—and he didn't want the lights to come back on.
4. He laughed and said, "That's against the law!"
5. they argue about whether houses have ever been fireproof; that firemen used to put out fires
6. things go way too fast—there is not even time to read a 20-foot billboard as everyone speeds by, so they have extended them to 200 feet

9. He remembers meeting a man on a bench who had a book of poetry hidden inside his coat; the man gave Montag his name and phone number.
10. Answers will vary. (Sample student answer: Montag is having a moment of realization. He feels as if there is a mirror in front of him as Clarisse brings out his innermost fears and thoughts. He is beginning to question why things are done the way they are, and starting to become a bit of a rebel.)
11. cold; distant; like a "mausoleum" and a "tomb"; reveals the impersonal feeling of the home

They are like snakes; one man inserts one of these "snakes" into Mildred, sucking out all her impurities, in this case, the pills; the other man inserts a snake to suck all the impure blood from her body, then replaces it with fresh blood. They treat her inhumanly, like a doll or a dead object. They have to perform these "cleansings" quite often, and in fact, have about 10 a night and are on their way to another after Mildred.
15. laughter coming from Clarisse's house; he goes across the lawn to hear more, even tap on the window to listen, but fear gets the best of him
16. Seashell Radios (ear thimbles); she listens constantly to the broadcast of constant talking and sounds and "white" noise; she is an expert at lipreading, now; she may want to drown out other human interaction, she may just be so used to it that she doesn't think of doing anything else; possibly because of the constant hum or because they are so small
17. She has no memory of anything; she denies doing something "like that," asking why she would do such a foolish thing.

Fahrenheit 451 Study Guide CD-ROM 430cd CD-Rom,2011-03-16 Guy Montag a fireman of the future is responsible for starting fires not stopping them In his society books have been banned all books save the firemen's own rule books which contain the ominous order Burn everything Montag finds pleasure in enforcing the status quo which is that pleasure in the ultimate good and intellectual pursuits are bad because they breed dissatisfaction and superiority At least he finds pleasure in his job until one autumn evening when a teenage neighbor Clarisse McClellan asks him a simple haunting question Are you happy The question takes on greater urgency when Montag discovers that his wife Mildred has overdosed on pills in a suicide attempt After she is perfunctorily and mechanically revived by technicians she has no memory of her actions and resumes her distraction filled days as though nothing has happened She continues to insist she is happy spending her time in the ironically named living room with her televised life sized family entertaining her from three wall sized screens The final shock to Montag's complacency occurs when he and his fellow firemen respond to an alarm at 11 North Elm Street where a woman possesses a contraband library Rather than passively submit to the firemen's kerosene she lights the match that ignites the books and herself As a result of this self immolation Montag clearly sees a new truth There must be something in books things we can't imagine and perhaps he thinks that something can heal not only his life and his marriage but also his happiness hunting society And so Montag begins to read forbidden books that he has hidden in his home putting his career and life in danger With the help of Faber a former professor of literature Montag seeks a way to help or force his society to remember what it has forgotten With Fire Captain Beatty the firemen and their lethal Mechanical Hound in pursuit of him Montag races against time to save a society unaware that it is heading toward self destruction
