

GOODBYE LAZY GIRL

Inspired By Your Higher Self

BYE BYE LAZINESS

Set clear goals: Get a journal and write down your goals. Set clear and attainable goals for yourself, both short-term and long-term.

Prioritize tasks: Identify the most important tasks that need to be done and prioritize them according to their urgency and importance.

Break down tasks into smaller steps: Break down larger tasks into smaller, manageable steps.

Create a schedule: Develop a daily or weekly schedule that outlines your tasks and activities. Wherever you go, the schedule will be with you.

Minimize distractions: Identify and minimize distractions that can derail your productivity, such as social media, e-mail or noisy environments. Get a study buddy to help you stay focused, in other words, get a Paris Geller.

Take breaks: Schedule regular breaks throughout the day to rest and recharge. Prioritize sleep; sleep at least 7-9 hours a day. Always go to bed and wake up at the same time.

Practice self-discipline: Develop self-discipline by setting limits, sticking to your schedule and holding yourself accountable for your actions. And the most important question you must ask yourself is: do I really want this? There is no holy grail: you either want it or you don't.

Stay organized: Keep your workspace neat and organized to promote mental clarity and productivity. Use tools such as to-do lists, calendars, and task management apps.

Practical Skills for Ministry Andrew Pratt, 2013-01-25 The SCM Studyguide Practical Skills for Ministry offers a practical introduction for those who are training for ministry both lay and ordained within the church. The book answers the questions asked by those preparing for ministry and by those who have recently started and found gaps in the way they have been prepared. The author uses real examples drawn from his experience of over 20 years of pastoral ministry together with work in chaplaincy and broadcasting and the shared experience of others. The book covers all those aspects of ministry required within the more practical contextual areas of the course of preparation for ministry in use by mainstream denominations such as baptisms, weddings, working with others, communication, meetings and funerals. It provides practical guidance which is soundly theologically and pastorally based.
