from the critically acclaimed author of The Beginning of Everything Up until his diagnosis Lane lived a fairly predictable life When he s sent to Latham House a boarding school for sick teens Lane thinks his life may as well be over But when he meets Sadie and her friends a group of eccentric troublemakers he realises that maybe getting sick is just the beginning That illness doesn t have to define you and that falling in love is its own cure Robyn Schneider s Extraordinary Means is a heart wrenching yet ultimately hopeful about true friendships ill fated love and the rare miracle of second chances Praise for Extraordinary Means This captivating book about life death fear and second chances will fly off the shelves VOYA Schneider s subtlety combined with themes about learning to live life fully makes this an easy recommendation for those seeking titles similar in premise to John Green s The Fault in Our Stars School Library Journal The perfect read next for fans of the sick lit trend and readers looking for a tear stained romance Bulletin of the Center for Children s Books Fans of John Green s blockbuster The Fault in Our Stars who are eager for more of that kind of story will likely be satisfied Booklist

Fiction on the Page in Nineteenth-Century Magazines Maria Damkjær,2024-11-25 What makes fiction recognizable as fiction Texts are shaped by their material print but this book argues that they can also be made in response to it that the needs of the magazine in the nineteenth century spurred writers to create hybrid entangled texts Using book history genre theory and literary close reading this book argues that narrative fiction in the nineteenth century popular periodical was a malleable substance By looking at typography and the attempts to squeeze in too much text or stretch out too little text the book asks what the relationship was between the page that needed filling and the short story that tried to fill it In the messy hybrids and outliers we explore what fiction might have become The book works with magazines like the Englishwoman s Domestic Magazine first series 1852 59 the Family Herald 1842 1945 the Home Circle 1849 54 and authors like Elizabeth Gaskell George Augustus Sala and Samuel Beeton It also includes a chapter on Charles Dickens s arguably least successful venture Master Humphrey s Clock 1840 1 where Dickens was noticeably straining to sell and fill a weekly magazine While the book is not attempting to destabilise the status of canonical fiction it does ask how the page makes fiction happen what kind of readers magazines imagined for themselves and what readers thought they were reading when they picked up an issue The book argues that magazines projected a print imaginary a symbolic realm where the magazine fits perfectly into the lives of happy active readers

Global Antisemitism: A Crisis of Modernity Charles Asher Small,2013-11-28 This volume contains a selection of essays based on papers presented at a conference organized at Yale University and hosted by the Yale Initiative for the Interdisciplinary Study of Antisemitism YIISA and the International Association for the Study of Antisemitism IASA entitled Global Antisemitism A Crisis of Modernity The essays are written by scholars from a wide array of disciplines intellectual backgrounds and perspectives and address the conference s two inter related areas of focus global antisemitism and the crisis of modernity currently affecting the core elements of Western society and civilization Rather than treating antisemitism merely as an historical phenomenon the authors place it squarely in the contemporary context As a result this volume also provides important insights into the ideologies processes and developments that give rise to prejudice in the contemporary global context This thought provoking collection will be of interest to students and scholars of antisemitism and discrimination as well as to scholars and readers from other fields Cyber Spaces/Social Spaces I. Goodson,M. Knobel,C. Lankshear,M. Mangan,2002-12-05 What happens when a new social technology is imposed on the established social technology of the school This book presents an unusual application of critical cultural analysis to a series of empirical case studies of educational uses of information and communication technologies ICTs Drawing on research conducted over a ten year period in three different regions of the Anglo American developed world it examines themes arising from the struggle for the social spaces and emerging cyber spaces of schooling the role of identity projects in educational change and the paradoxes which arise from these processes The resulting analysis offers a rich and sobering perspective on the rush to technologize classrooms The Dickensian Bertram Waldrom Matz,1917 PHI THIEN CHAPTER 78 Huu Khanh,2025-08-04 PHI THIEN CHAPTER 78 As soon as they met Sima Wentian immediately asked Shangguan what happened that you were so worried that you called us to meet Shangguan Qing had a pained expression continuously clasping his hands and saying Something big happened Sima Wentian looked at him from top to bottom and asked What big thing happened that scared you like this Does His Majesty want to behead you It s probably not much different Shangguan Qing said in a low voice I won t hide it from you two Jiang Yiyi is a person from the Qunying Society and fell into the hands of Xinyi Ge Shangguan Qing roughly recounted the incident Proceedings of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the District of Columbia Royal Arch Masons. Grand Chapter of the District of Columbia,1903 Making Sense of Narrative Text Michael Toolan,2016-06-03 This book takes the following question as its starting point What are some of the crucial things the reader must do in order to make sense of a literary narrative The book is a study of the texture of narrative fiction using stylistics corpus linguistic principles especially Hoey s work on lexical patterning narratological ideas and cognitive stylistic work by Werth Emmott and others Michael Toolan explores the textual grammatical nature of fictional narratives critically re examining foundational ideas about the role of lexical patterning in narrative texts and also engages the cognitive or psychological processes at play in literary reading The study grows out of the theoretical questions that stylistic analyses of extended fictional texts raise concerning the nature of narrative comprehension and the reader s experience in the course of reading narratives and particularly concerning the role of language in that comprehension and experience The ideas of situation repetition and picturing are all central to the book s argument about how readers process story and Toolan also considers the ethical and emotional involvement of the reader developing hypotheses about the text linguistic characteristics of the most ethically and emotionally involving portions of the stories examined This book makes an important contribution to the study of narrative text and is in dialogue with recent work in corpus stylistics cognitive stylistics and literary text and texture *Charles Dickens' Works: Great expectations.
