

Mom

*Things I feel most deeply,
are the hardest things to say,
Dearest Mom I loved you
in a very special way.*

*If I could have one lifetime wish,
one dream that could come true,
I'd pray to God with all my heart,
for yesterday with you.*

...Missing You Always...

Sherry Anne Coombe

Happy Birthday Card Images For Deceased Mother:

James McSherry, 2004-07-01 A Clean Street is a Bronx memoir both powerful and moving. A heart-breaking tale seen through the eyes of a boy who struggles to hold on to a dream while dealing with his mentally ill mother, a drunk absent father, too many siblings, and too little money. A hard knock life transformed into art. Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1956

Confessions of a Grieving Mother Sherry Anne Coombe, 2014-04-10 I did not cry. The moment came when Heather died. I did not shed a tear. I felt numb like I was having an out of body experience and I was watching myself go through the motions. There were things to do, people to call. It was not the time to begin to fall apart. I had just joined an elite club of grieving mothers. This was the club, no one talked about or wanted to become a member of. From that moment on, my life was getting a makeover that I didn't ask for, let alone consent to. It was beyond my control. I was not given a choice. This was and is my life now. I am a grieving mother for the rest of my life. Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series, 1956

A Clean Street's a Happy Street James McSherry, 2007-07-26 Eschewing sappiness in favor of sparse but vivid prose, McSherry documents his first few decades with four siblings, very little money, and two parents whose respective mental illnesses intensified as the years progress. Although his story is certainly unique, McSherry's book has much to say about the nobility and struggle that characterize every individual life. A deeply affecting, surprisingly unsentimental description of surviving and transcending a tumultuous upbringing. Kirkus Discoveries. To say McSherry has lived a hard knock life is an understatement, but the Lehman High School teacher and Brio Award winner has crafted a Bronx version of Angela's Ashes that resonates with hope, wit, and perseverance. Derek Woods, host of the television program Bronx Magazine. Love You Mom

Charmaine Roud, Carter Roud, 2019-12-03 Expecting their nineteen-year-old son Carter home from work at any minute, Charmaine and her husband received the call that every parent dreads: Carter had been in a car accident. He died at the scene. Overcome by grief, Charmaine felt the need to find Carter in the weeks and months following his death. She began a frantic search for answers to her questions about what happens after death and where Carter is now. She needed to know that he was alright. Gradually, she became aware of strange occurrences. She smelled Carter's scent at various times. She noticed the number six, Carter's lucky number, showing up in unexpected places. Text messages from Carter were appearing on his friends' phones. Then one night, Charmaine received a written message from Carter. Through the help of meditation and focus, Charmaine began to communicate with Carter in spirit. Over time and with practice, their communication strengthened, and Carter's spirit communicated to Charmaine wisdom, truths, and insights about life and what comes after death.
