How to write a characterization Characters can be presented in two ways: a) direct (explicit) characterization: the narrator or a character tells the reader what sort of person a character is b) indirect (implicit) characterization: the reader has to draw conclusions about what the character is like by what the character says or does Step 1

Make a grid and note down: •

what the narrator or other characters say about the character you are dealing with

what the character says about him- or herself

the character's outward appearance (e.g. what he or she looks like) the character's behaviour (e.g. what he or she says, thinks or does)
