Why We Are Losing the War on

Gun Violence in the United States Marie Crandall, Stephanie Bonne, Jennifer Bronson, Woodie Kessel, 2020-12-09 This edited collection of data and perspectives takes a fresh approach to gun violence prevention by addressing the question why are we losing the war on gun violence in America Although successes and failures in the prevention of gun violence are examined it is a war we are losing due to restrictions on research funding entrenched historical perspectives structural violence and perhaps differing priorities or views on what is right or wrong Gun violence is a public health crisis It remains politicized and has been paralyzed with inaction In the chapters the authors write candidly about the challenges that have thwarted gun violence prevention as well as highlight possible strategies for progress to save lives Critical areas explored among the chapters include Gun Violence Structural Violence and Social Justice School Shootings Creating Safer Schools Mental Illness and Gun Violence Understanding the Political Divide in Gun Policy Support The Second Amendment and the War on Guns The Impact of Policy and Law Enforcement Strategies on Reducing Gun Violence in America Youth Gun Violence Prevention Organizing Smart Guns Don't Kill People With this compendium the editors and authors hope to bridge the growing gap between groups or ideologies and create common ground to discuss workable solutions Why We Are Losing the War on Gun Violence in the United States is essential reading for a broad audience including practitioners academics researchers students policy makers and other professionals in public health behavioral sciences including social work and psychology social sciences health sciences public policy political science and law as well as any readers interested in the path to decreasing gun violence in America

What is Colonialism? Patrick Colm Hogan, 2023-11-30 What is Colonialism develops a clear and rigorous account of what colonialism is and how it works It draws on and synthesizes recent work in cognitive science affective science and social psychology along with Marxism and related forms of analysis Hogan begins with some fundamental conceptual distinctions such as the degree to which a group shares beliefs dispositions and skills versus the degree to which they share identification with a category Building on these distinctions he defines colonialism in terms of political economic and cultural autonomy clarifying the nature of culture and autonomy particularly He goes on to articulate an invaluable systematic account of the varieties of colonialism The final chapters outline the motives of imperialists differentiating these from their ideological rationalizations and sketching the harms caused by colonialism The book concludes by considering when or if one can achieve a genuinely postcolonial condition Hogan illustrates these analyses by examining influential literary works by European writers such as Joseph Conrad and by non Europeans such as Athol Fugard Kamala Markandaya and Wole Soyinka This accessible and informative volume is the ideal resource for students and scholars interested in colonialism and empire

Right to Development and Illicit Financial Flows from Africa Serges Djoyou Kamga, Gerard Emmanuel Kamdem Kamga, Arnold Kwesiga, 2024-02-15 Gerard Emmanuel Kamdem Kamga Serges Djoyou Kamga and Arnold Kwesiga explore a relatively new phenomenon namely referred to as illicit financial flows that aim to impoverish the African continent and prevent its economic development There is a direct relationship between illicit financial flows and failed initiatives to realize the right to development on the continent For instance in 2016 Africa received 41 billion towards public development while 50 billion left the continent through illicit financial flows The gap between recent economic achievements on the continent and its state of generalized underdevelopment coupled with rampant poverty corruption prolonged economic crisis and political instabilities signals an issue with resource allocations The systematic theft of resources by multinational corporations and criminal networks is a hard blow to the idea of people driven development in line with the Pan African vision of an integrated prosperous and peaceful Africa proclaimed by Agenda 2063 Right to Development and Illicit Financial Flows from Africa Dynamics Perspectives and Prospects provides insights into the dynamics and perspectives on illicit financial flows and its dire impacts on the right to development and development initiatives across the continent

Ethics and Professionalism J. S. H. Gildenhuys, 2004-01-01 Immoral unethical conduct of politicians and public officials is a global scourge of the present day The South African government is leading the battle against corruption in the public sector and it must be supported by officials educated to recognise and enabled to combat every appearance of this pestilence Ethics and Professionalism is essential equipment for such education Having been constructed on the principles of knowledge progression and outcomes based education it sets out explaining the meaning of ethics and its importance for public officials
