

Purpose and Style

Literal Purpose – build trust and community, win votes, unify her audience.

Literal Style – personable, anecdotal, passionate, rallying.

Intro and Thesis:

Text 1 is a speech by VP-elect Kamala Harris designed to build a sense of community, win votes, and unify her audience. She achieves this purpose through the telling of personal anecdotes, by expressing her passion for justice, and by making the speech inclusive and rallying.

Paragraph 1:

Nuanced Purpose – build trust and intimacy, present values positively, evoke a sense of familial inclusivity.

Nuanced Style – personable, anecdotal, intimate, values interwoven, relatable stories, metaphorical language, tone of sincerity.

Harris uses multiple anecdotes which likely resonate with a broad audience. This helps build a personal connection that may ultimately convince the audience to vote for her party. Harris begins her speech by intimately describing her mother's life, stating that when "her parents split, she raised them mostly on her own". Immediately, an image of resilience, strength and responsibility is conveyed. People listening will be able to relate, as many of them may have a mother, or be a mother, forced to "work around the clock" as Harris figuratively describes. Further intimacy is built as she reflects on her mother's death; Harris goes on to say that she wishes she were "there with [her] tonight" but that she knows "she's looking down on [her] from above". Anyone who has lost a loved one will understand, and empathise with, the solemn and sincere message; again, intimacy is built. Furthermore, Harris says her mother raised her and her sisters to be "proud, strong black women", suggesting her values are woven into the fabric of her life and not just the gimmicky slogans of another election year; she is part of the fight for equality, embodying a successful struggle over adversity herself. Harris reflects upon how her mother also taught her to "put family first". She creates a sense of warmth by calling on the names of her relatives, such as "Doug", "Cole" and "Ella", who call her by the nickname of "Momala" positioning herself as both friend and mother. Interestingly, she encourages the audience to also put the "family you choose" first, metaphorically insinuating that her new democrat party is a family the audience can be part of. Through these intimate anecdotes, Harris effectively builds a deep familial connection with the audience, which is ultimately effective in garnering votes and gaining trust.
