Social Emotional Learning in Middle School Jeffrey A. Rosen, Kesha Hudson, Susan Rotermund, Cheryl Roberts, Anna-Lisa Mackey, 2022-07-14 This article focuses attention on a critical need for more evidence based social emotional learning SEL programs for middle school students First we explore the definition of SEL pointing out how it has evolved as our world has changed We review key SEL domains and skills and describe universal school based SEL programming as one approach to fostering students SEL competencies We highlight the ongoing need for evidence based middle school SEL programs by demonstrating how few programs meet the rigorous What Works Clearinghouse WWC Collaborative for Academic Social and

Emotional Learning CASEL and Blueprints standards for evidence We extend our summary of these programs by noting that even when positive effects have been demonstrated these effects were often observed in a single domain such as substance use or outnumbered by null effects which undermines efforts to understand program effectiveness We conclude by considering the unique developmental needs of early adolescents and providing recommendations for the development or refinement of SEL programs that target middle school students
