Mary, Help of Christians, and the Fourteen Saints Invoked as Holy Helpers , 1909 Mary, Help of Christians Bonaventure Hammer, Rev Bonaventure Hammer O F M, 2013-04-25 HOLY SCRIPTURE says Before prayer prepare thy soul and be not as a man that tempteth God Eccles xviii 23 Therefore place yourself in the presence of God invoke the assistance of the Holy Ghost and make a most sincere act of contrition for your sins Offer up to God your will your intellect and your memory so that your prayer may be pleasing to God and serve to promote your spiritual welfare Then read the meditation slowly reflecting on each point of the thought or mystery treated and consider what you can learn from it and for what grace you ought to implore God This is the principal object to be attained by mental prayer Never rise from your prayer without having formed some special resolution for practical observance The practices at the end of each consideration in the following novenas will aid you to do so Finally ask for grace to carry out effectively your good purposes and thank God for enlightening your mind during the meditation Rules for the Proper Observance of Novenas By St Alphonsus Liguori 1 THE soul must be in the state of grace for the devotion of a sinful heart pleases neither God nor the saints 2 We must persevere that is the prayers for each day of the novena must never be omitted 3 If possible we should visit a church every day and

there implore the favor we desire 4 Every day we ought to perform certain specified acts of exterior self denial and interior mortification in order to prepare us thereby for the reception of grace 5 It is most important that we receive Holy Communion when making a novena Therefore prepare yourself well for it 6 After obtaining the desired grace for which the novena was made do not omit to return thanks to God and to the saint through whose intercession your prayers were heard

History of the Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary in North America Xavier Donald MacLeod,1866 Catholic literature in this country is not yet rich in works of a historical character and though not a few have appeared evincing great research and worthy of a high place there was still wanting a popular element which genius alone could supply by lending its charm to the often dry details of the historian The devotion to the Blessed Virgin in this country from its settlement to the present day was a theme which had been briefly touched upon by one or two writers Still it was a field which the late lamented author of the following pages entered with all the zeal and devotion of his ardent and impassioned character and as a necessary consequence he gave his work the stamp of his particular genius Few more gifted writers have appeared among us than Xavier Donald Macleod and in undertaking his work material was contributed by his numerous friends The writer of this one who had enjoyed that friendship from boyhood rejoicing to see him about to take up a subject so worthy of his talents furnished him an abundant material which he had collected and feels now perhaps too great a pleasure in his privilege in having contributed to so noble a work as that here presented to the Catholic public
