Handbook of Research on Learner-Centered Approaches to Teaching in an Age of Transformational Change Bromer, Billi L., Crawford, Caroline M., 2022-06-24 Institutions of education are in an age of transformational change in which learning has a wider scope of understanding and long term impact than ever before Those involved in teaching and learning require additional training and subject matter support towards developing a broader and more profoundly complex understanding of the learners affected by evolving sociological events and associated needs More than ever a broader understanding of the learner is needed inclusive of a learner centered approach to both teaching and learner cognitive engagement The Handbook of Research on Learner Centered Approaches to Teaching in an Age of Transformational Change examines the abundant transformational changes that have occurred and provide strategies to understand and address them It draws from a wide range of experts and provides a burgeoning understanding of the effects of these rapidly moving transformational changes that are occurring in the processes of teaching and learning Exploring a wide range of issues such as community engagement scholarship motivation driven assignment design and trauma informed practices this major reference work is an invaluable resource for educators of K 12 and higher education educational faculty and administration pre service teachers government officials non profit organizations sociologists libraries researchers and academicians

A Rhetoric of Reflection Kathleen Yancey, 2016-08-15 Reflection in writing studies is now entering a third generation Dating from the 1970s the first generation of reflection focused on identifying and describing internal cognitive processes assumed to be part of composing The second generation operating in both classroom and assessment scenes in the 1990s developed mechanisms for externalizing reflection making it visible and thus explicitly available to help writers Now a third generation of work in reflection is emerging As mapped by the contributors to A Rhetoric of Reflection this iteration of research and practice is taking up new questions in new sites of activity and with new theories It comprises attention to transfer of writing knowledge and practice teaching and assessment portfolios linguistic and cultural difference and various media including print and digital It conceptualizes conversation as a primary reflective medium both inside and outside the classroom and for individuals and collectives and articulates the role that different genres play in hosting reflection Perhaps most important in the work of this third generation is the identification and increasing appreciation of the epistemic value of reflection of its ability to help make new meanings and of its rhetorical power for both scholars and students Contributors Anne Beaufort Kara Taczak Liane Robertson Michael Neal Heather Ostman Cathy Leaker Bruce Horner Asao B Inoue Tyler Richmond J Elizabeth Clark Naomi Silver Christina Russell McDonald Pamela Flash Kevin Roozen Jeff Sommers Doug Hesse
