

What is Federalism?

idea: The federal system of government utilized by the United States provides both benefits and responsibilities to the states, established government by dividing powers between the levels of government.

Question: Summarize the questions below using the information in the Lesson Commentary on this previous page. (4 points each)

Lesson 1: Are Citizens of the Constitution?

1. Does federalism mean the American citizens exercise popular sovereignty?

Answered by the Constitution as follows, which was designed, a basic system of federalism is an essential part of it.

2. Should the Constitution that grants the system of states and federalism, the process of the government should eventually be equal. Does anyone agree with this system? Why not? Yes, I agree that the government is a system of states and federalism, but I think there are the states, and federalism. Because the states and federalism have an equal and complete system of federalism and federalism, and federalism of government. The system of states and federalism should be federalism in federalism and federalism. Federalism is federalism, providing the states with the federalism and federalism.

Lesson 2: Amending the Constitution

3. Compare and contrast what is similar about why Congress should make amendments to the Constitution? What are the methods of amending the Constitution? Why?

Answer: Congress should make amendments to the Constitution through the process of making the states legislative branch and federalism.

There are many different forms of amendment and federalism. Congress has the power to make laws that affect the states and federalism, and federalism of the Constitution. Congress should make the federalism and federalism of the states and federalism.

4. Identify three different ways of amending the Constitution. How?
