ECRM2015-Proceedings of the 14th European Conference on Research Methods 2015 Dr Vincent Cassar, Dr Frank Bezzina, 2015-06-01 Complete proceedings of the 14th European Conference on Research Methodology for Business and Management Studies Valletta Malta Published by Academic Conferences and Publishing International Postgraduate Study in South Africa Liezel Frick, Puleng Motshoane, Christopher McMaster, 2016-11-21 The book explores concerns about the lack of higher education transformation around issues of equity curriculum reform language and race and how students navigate higher education complexities Students self reflective abilities creativity and pragmatic approaches to surviving and succeeding are indicators that postgraduate student success is as much internally as externally determined Each chapter speaks from a uniquely South African perspective The editors have tried to remain true to the voice of each contributor while simultaneously providing a coherent body of scholarly work The Challenges of Health Disparities Darren Liu, Betty Burston, Shartriya C. Stewart, Heidi H. Mulligan, 2018-09-11 This unique text explores health disparities in the United States and their implications from the perspective of a health care administration The book begins with a broad overview of health disparities including definitions from local state and federal legislation as well as alternative definitions The authors examine current and past frameworks of analysis regarding the causes of disparities and provide a statistical overview of death rates and their implications for health care administrators In the final section of the book each chapter looks at health disparities within each type of health care environment such as physician practices hospitals pharmaceutical products Medicare Medicaid long term care insurance markets and more An Ambulance on Safari Melissa Diane Armstrong, 2020-10-22 During the apartheid era thousands of South African political activists militants and refugees fled arrest by crossing into neighbouring southern African countries Although they had escaped political oppression many required medical attention during their period of exile An Ambulance on Safari describes the efforts of the African National Congress ANC to deliver emergency healthcare to South African exiles and in the same stroke to establish political legitimacy and foster anti apartheid sentiment on an international stage Banned in South Africa from 1960 to 1990 the ANC continued its operations underground in anticipation of eventual political victory styling itself as a government in waiting In 1977 it created its own Health Department which it presented as an alternative medical service and the nucleus of a post apartheid healthcare system By publicizing its own democratic policies as well as the racist practices of healthcare delivery in South Africa the Health Department won international attention for its cause and provoked widespread condemnation of the apartheid state While the global campaign was unfolding successfully the department's provision of healthcare on the ground was intermittent as patients confronted a fledgling medical system experiencing various growing pains Still the legacy of the department would be long as many medical professionals who joined the post apartheid Department of Health in South Africa had been trained in exile during the liberation struggle With careful attention to both the international publicity campaign and on the ground medical efforts An Ambulance on Safari reveals the intricate and significant political role of the ANC's Health Department and its influence on the anti apartheid movement Salutogenesis and Coping Orna
