According to Fraiman cool men rebel against a mainstream defined as maternal Bad boys resist the authority of women and banish mothers to the realm of the uncool As a result despite their hipness or because of it these men too often feel free to ignore the insights of feminist thinkers Through subtle close readings Fraiman shows that even Gates champion of black women s writing and even queer theorists bent on undoing gender binaries at times end up devaluing women in favor of men and masculinity A wide ranging and fair minded analysis Cool Men acknowledges the invaluable contributions of its subjects while also deciphering the gender codes and baring the contradictions implicit in their work Affirming the legacy of second wave feminist scholars and drawing as well on the intersectional work of third wavers Cool Men helps to reinvent feminist critique for the twenty first century

Algerian Cinema in Forty Five Lessons Ahmed Bedjaoui, 2025-03-01 Algerian Cinema in Forty Five Lessons offers a fresh approach to examine the history of Algerian cinema from its inception to the present day providing in depth analysis of forty five key films. While most scholarly and critical work on Algerian cinema continues to centre on the War of Independence and those films engaging with it, Dr Ahmed Bedjaoui argues that this thematic dominance has overshadowed many other important aspects of Algerian film history. Further, Bedjaoui examines how revolutionary films have frequently depicted an idealized image of a heroic, flawless and fearless figure which has been strategically crafted to legitimize national authority at different points in time. This book offers a new reading which involves rehabilitating some major but underestimated works as well as questioning other films primarily known for their contribution to the Algerian national story. Among the works studied, certain productions offer a less Manichean vision of the War of Independence while explaining the process that led to it. Above all, Bedjaoui strives to bring out of the shadows films of great artistic value, sometimes produced by state television and compares the productions of the so-called golden age (1960s and 1970s) with the films made by the following generations in terms of both creativity and capacity to reflect the specificity of Algerian society. Through a contextualization of forty specific films this book provides a deep analysis of the changes which occurred in the heart of Algerian society moving from an all socialist to an all protectionist state before being later threatened by religious fundamentalism Engaging and accessibly written and including coverage of many films never written about in English language histories of Algerian cinema this book is an essential resource for understanding this dynamic and vital film culture
