Berk, 2022-07-26 Exploring Lifespan Development Fourth Edition the essentials version of Development Through the Lifespan Seventh Edition by best selling author Laura E Berk includes the same topics the same number of chapters and the same outstanding features with a focus on the most important information and a greater emphasis on practical real life applications Annual Index, 1928 An Age of Accountability John L. Rury, 2023-10-13 An Age of Accountability highlights the role of test based accountability as a policy framework in American education from 1970 to 2020 For more than half a century the quest to hold schools and educators accountable for academic achievement has relied almost exclusively on standardized assessment The theory of change embedded in almost all test based accountability programs held that assessment with stipulated consequences could lead to major improvements in schools This was accomplished politically by proclaiming lofty goals of attaining universal proficiency and closing achievement gaps which repeatedly failed to materialize But even after very clear disappointments no other policy framework has emerged to challenge its hegemony The American public today has little confidence in institutions to improve the quality of goods and services they provide especially in the public sector As a consequence many Americans continue to believe that accountability remains a vital necessity even if educators and policy scholars disagree Real-world data and real-world

Rethinking Human Rights Erika Jiménez,2024-10-17 Palestinians have used the language of human rights to articulate their struggle against the Israeli occupation and internationalise the injustices they face Palestinian young people learning about human rights at school experience a dissonance between the aspirational and internationalised framework of those norms and the layers of injustice of their own lived experience Drawing on research in the occupied West Bank this book explores the three layers of marginalisation faced by Palestinian young people the Israeli occupation that denies them their humanity the Palestinian pseudo state that denies them a voice and patriarchal structures that deny them agency to show how these barriers influence their understanding of and scepticism towards human rights Influenced by decolonial theories this book illuminates how space needs to be created for the counter narratives of the oppressed in human rights discourse which may not align with more conventional representations of human rights It contends that human rights and by extension human rights education in the Palestinian context and beyond needs to be critiqued decolonised and ultimately transformed

Metals Abstracts ,1993 Confronting Corruption in Business Alan T. Belasen,Roxana Toma,2015-12-07 Confronting Corruption in Business focuses on the contextual issues that trigger corruption to give the reader a more thorough understanding of destructive leadership It provides students with a unique critical perspective on issues of leadership corruption and policy in different countries industries and companies While there isn't a universally agreed upon definition of corruption in social sciences it generally refers to efforts to secure wealth or power through misusing public power for private gain This kind of destructive leadership is typically treated as an anomaly but this book closes the gap in our understanding by highlighting the wider consequences of this behavior within business and on an international level Armed with this understanding one also learns how to mitigate its causes and consequences Edited by leading experts the book includes contributions from scholars with international expertise on leadership strategy political science finance organizational change and public policy It is the first book to focus on corruption on the country level and within business and students in international business management ethics and leadership classes will find it a valuable read
