Engaging in Educational Research Raqib Chowdhury, Mahbub Sarkar, Foez Mojumder, M Moninoor Roshid, 2018-10-01 This book reflects the paradigm shift now manifesting in Bangladesh's education system by highlighting recent empirical research. It shares essential insights by presenting research conducted on diverse aspects of current day education in Bangladesh including policy and governance equity access and participation curriculum and pedagogy assessment and education programs and projects run by NGOs. Further it offers a platform for these unique studies to be showcased and disseminated to scholars and researchers from developing and developed countries alike and represents a unique reference resource for the education research community in Bangladesh Asia and all over the world. With Foreword from Professor Serajul Islam Choudhury. Training Teachers of Chinese in Australia Chen Shen, 2021-10-28 Chinese language the first language spoken and used by the largest population in the world has witnessed a significant global increase. Chinese as a Second Language (CSL) has thus received unprecedented attention and teaching and learning of CSL have transcended the national boundary. This book reports a case study of training teachers of CSL in Australia with a significant implication to the western English speaking countries such as Canada New Zealand the UK and the USA. The book is unique in several ways. On a theoretical level the book analyses knowledge based and competence based teacher education provides an in depth examination of post method pedagogy and deconstructs traditional aspects of second language teacher education making a case for the new concept of three dimensions. On a practical level the Australian based case study employs qualitative methods to gather the feedback from teacher educators teacher trainees and students who are undergoing CSL training and further reports on studies on CSL teaching practicum in local schools and abroad. Training Teachers of Chinese in Australia is a book for established scholars researchers educators and research higher degree students who are interested in teacher education second and foreign language education and Chinese as a second language (CSL). Active and Healthy Aging and Quality of Life: Interventions and Outlook for the Future Yulan Lin, Waqas Sami, Mila Nu Nu Htay, Sudip Bhattacharya, 2024-04-15 The continuous growth of older adult populations as a consequence of demographic changes is a huge challenge. To prevent costly and negative impacts effects on the population as a whole it is crucial that societies increase their knowledge of promoting good health among older adults to promote good health and a better quality of life in their later years. Active aging is the process of optimizing opportunities for health participation and security in order to enhance quality of life as people age. An active and healthy life has remained one of the most important aspirations for all people both young and older adults alike. This ambition has become a genuine possibility for many due to a rising life expectancy among people of diverse attributes across the world. While celebrating longer life and with more financial security in later life than ever before we need to challenge how these aspirations can be sustained through our own behavioural responses and through public policy institutional reforms and innovations. The challenge is to identify recommend and promote strategies and interventions that stimulate and sustain the activity independence and health of people of all ages especially older adults and in the process promote the well being and quality of life of people and make public welfare systems more sustainable *National Budget Framework Paper for the Financial Years ...
