Ideologies In The Age Of Extremes Liberalism Conservatism Communism Fascism 1914 1991:

Ideologies in the Age of Extremes Willie Thompson, 2010-12-24 This is a history of political ideologies during the period from the First World War to the collapse of the Soviet Union famously described by Eric Hobsbawm as The Age of Extremes By introducing the key ideologies of the twentieth century liberalism conservatism communism and fascism and considering them in relation to each other Willie Thompson shows how these philosophies often emerged from a common root or merged into a common future stealing each other's clothes and reinventing themselves as the stark opposite of a competing ideology This sophisticated yet accessible analysis will be of great interest to students of 20th century history and political theory

The Intellectual in Modern Chinese History Timothy Cheek, 2016-01-05 This vivid narrative history of Chinese intellectuals and public life provides a guide to making sense of China today Timothy Cheek presents a map and a method for understanding the intellectual in the long twentieth century from China's defeat in the Sino Japanese war in 1895 to the Prosperous China since the 2008 Beijing Olympics Cheek surveys the changing terrain of intellectual life over this transformative century in Chinese history to enable readers to understand a particular figure idea or debate The map provides coordinates to track different times different social worlds and key concepts The historical method focuses on context and communities during six periods to make sense of ideas institutions and individual thinkers across the century Together they provide a memorable account of the scenes and protagonists and arguments and ideas of intellectuals and public life in modern China

Ideology and Criminal Law Stephen Skinner, 2019-09-05 With populist nationalist and repressive governments on the rise around the world questioning the impact of politics on the nature and role of law and the state is a pressing concern If we are to understand the effects of extreme ideologies on the state's legal dimensions and powers especially the power to punish and to determine the boundaries of permissible conduct through criminal law it is essential to consider the lessons of history This timely collection explores how political ideas and beliefs influenced the nature content and application of criminal law and justice under Fascism National Socialism and other authoritarian regimes in the twentieth century Bringing together expert legal historians from four continents the collection's 16 chapters examine aspects of criminal law and related jurisprudential and criminological questions in the context of Fascist Italy Nazi Germany Nazi occupied Norway apartheid South Africa Francoist Spain and the authoritarian regimes of Brazil Romania and Japan Based on original archival doctrinal and theoretical research the collection offers new critical perspectives on issues of systemic identity self perception and the foundational role of criminal law processes of state repression and the activities of criminal courts and lawyers and ideological aspects of and tensions in substantive criminal law

Final Solutions Sabby Sagall, 2013-10-09 What causes genocide Through an examination of four modern genocides the Native Americans the Armenians the Jews and the Rwandan Tutsis Sabby Sagal formulates a theoretical framework for understanding some of the darkest hours of humanity Drawing on the scholarship of a range of Marxist psychoanalysts from the Frankfurt School to

Wilhelm Reich shows how genocides are enacted by social classes or communities that have experienced isolation and denial of human needs prostration and humiliation at the hands of major historical defeats or powerlessness These denials or degradations produce severe reactions hatred destructiveness and an impotent rage which is often projected onto a perceived other Through close analysis and theorising of the commonalities and differences between recent genocides Sagal hopes to produce greater understanding of the socio psychological rationale behind atrocities in order to prevent recurrences

The Rhetorical Leadership of Fulton J. Sheen, Norman Vincent Peale, and Billy Graham in the Age of Extremes Timothy H. Sherwood, 2013-08-15 Fulton J Sheen Norman Vincent Peale and Billy Graham were America s most popular religious leaders during the mid twentieth century period known as the golden years of the Age of Extremes It was part of an era that encompassed polemic contrasts of good and evil on the world stage in political philosophies and international relations The 1950s and early 1960s in particular were years of high anxiety competing ideologies and hero villain mania in America Sheen was the voice of reason who spoke against those conflicting ideologies which were hostile to religious faith and democracy Peale preached the gospel of reassurance self assurance and success despite ominous global threats and Graham was the heroic model of faith whose message of conversion provided Americans an identity and direction opposite to atheistic communism This study looks at how and why their rhetorical leadership both separately and together contributed to the climate of an extreme era and influenced a national religious revival Homo, Fix or Nix Abdulmouti Souwed, 2023-11-22
