Polemic Toby Miller, 2024-03-29 This new book from Toby Miller engages with journalism from within the cultural studies tradition addressing fundamental claims for the profession and its biggest contemporary challenges critiques objectivity and insecurity Why Journalism A Polemic considers four key aspects of contemporary journalism in terms of theoretical relevance and historic tasks that are not usually considered in parallel Citizenship political economic and cultural Environment the climate crisis and reporters material impact Sports the importance of the popular and Technology its former current and future significance With examples drawn from Latin America Spain and France as well as the US and Britain the query animating these investigations returns again and again implicitly and explicitly why journalism Miller argues for an answer to that dilemma that will involve a fundamental shift in how reporters proprietors professors students and states view the profession This is essential reading for scholars and students of media and cultural studies as well as journalism studies Events and Infrastructures Barbara Grabher, Ian R. Lamond, 2024-05-13 Innovative and the first of its kind this informative and multidisciplinary book explores the socio cultural significance inherent in event infrastructures While mainstream event management literature addresses event infrastructures mainly through its operational relevance this carefully compiled edited volume takes infrastructures as an analytical point in respect to its social political economic and cultural potential of the study of events Borrowing from the ongoing social scientific debates on the geography sociology and anthropology of infrastructures critical questions are posed in relation to the event contexts With references to events in Argentina Malawi Spain and the UK among others the volume combines an international perspective with a highly relevant subject for contemporary event management education By bringing together theoretical as well as empirical readings on the question of event infrastructures from a critical point of view the debates are relevant to practitioners and researchers as well as undergraduate and postgraduate students in the field of events leisure tourism anthropology sociology geography and urban planning among others BNA Pension & Benefits Reporter , 2010 The Value Line Investment Survey
