Memo For Life Science Paper November 2014

Brooke Jeffrey

Memo For Life Science Paper November 2014:

Global Social Policy Kepa Artaraz, Liz Cunningham, Michael Hill, 2016-06-29 Social policy is a subject that helps develop our understanding of the meaning of human wellbeing and of the systems by which wellbeing must be promoted. As a discipline, social policy has traditionally been blunted by a focus on the nation state; however, in this age of globalisation, the most pressing challenges such as climate change, ageing populations and flagging economies serve as proof that even at national level, social policy is now more heavily influenced by global factors than ever before. In this important and authoritative text, Kepa Artaraz and Michael Hill provide a richly detailed contribution to our understanding of the global forces shaping social problems today. Part One discusses the different approaches to social policy and explores the process of globalisation, looking particularly at its winners and losers and the implications it has for human well-being. Part Two examines more closely the key actors in global social policy, such as the market, the state and international organisations, and Part Three provides an opportunity to explore some specific key issues of global importance, such as employment and migration, demographic change and global poverty. Adding considerable momentum to the movement away from a reductionist, nationally focused study of the discipline, Global Social Policy opens up new and stimulating discussions and provides a fresh framework for the study of human well-being. Using policy examples from areas around the world to provide a truly international scope, it is an essential read for students studying at all levels. Governomics Ian McAuley, Miriam Lyons, 2015-05-01 People have good reason to demand decent public education and a well-funded health system; to yearn for an economy that doesn't trash the environment or for a smaller gap between rich and poor. Almost without exception, sound economics is on their side. We've grown used to public debates that pit people and the planet against an abstract, distorted image of the economy, but it doesn't have to be this way. Governomics shows that an emaciated state is bad for business and that standing up for government means standing up for a public sector that truly serves the public. Everybody knows governments are wasteful, incompetent and a drag on the economy. But if you're not sure that's true, read this book. Ross Gittins, Sydney Morning Herald and The Age. Governomics shows that a market economy can only work when sustained by a strong and active public sector. It will inject some much-needed economic sanity into conversations on the role of government in Australia. John Quiggin, Australian Research Council Laureate Fellow, University of Queensland. Arab Dawn Bessma Momani, 2015-11-26 In the West, news about the Middle East is dominated by an endless stream of reports and commentary about civil war, sectarian violence, religious extremism and economic stagnation. But do they tell the full story? For instance, who knew that university enrolment in the war-torn Palestinian territories exceeds that of Hong Kong, or that more than a third of Lebanese entrepreneurs are women? Change is on its way in the Middle East, argues Bessma Momani, and its cause is demographic. Today, one in five Arabs is between the ages of fifteen and twenty-four. Young, optimistic and increasingly cosmopolitan, their generation will shape the region's future. Drawing on interviews, surveys and other research conducted with young people in fifteen countries across the Arab world Momani describes the passion for entrepreneurship reform and equality among Arab youth With insightful political analysis based on the latest statistics and first hand accounts Arab Dawn is an invigorating study of the Arab world and the transformative power of youth Assured Destruction David Bath,2020-03-15 Assured Destruction Building the Ballistic Missile Culture of the U S Air Force documents the rapid development of nuclear ballistic missiles in the United States and their equally swift demise after the Cuban Missile Crisis revealing how these drastic changes negatively influenced both the Air Force and the missile community David W Bath contends that the struggle to create and control nuclear ballistic missiles threatened both the dominance of the United States during an intensifying Cold War and the strategic airpower mission of the newly created Air Force The book details the strenuous efforts required to create and prepare a missile arsenal before the Cuban Missile Crisis which occurred only five years after the first missile was declared operational It uses the personal recollections of former missileers and the professional military education theses they wrote to highlight some of the concerns that have faced the missileers who operated and worked on these powerful weapons from 1957 to the present The highlight of the book however is the personal stories of the missileers who served during the missile crisis revealing the efforts that they went to in order to prepare these unique and untried weapons for what many thought might become the third world war MAPPING CONFLICT IN

CHITTAGONG HILL TRACTS 1997-2014 Zahid ul Arefin Choudhury,2020-04-27 The issue of the Chittagong Hill Tracts is as divisive as the region itself At one end there are tales of woe how the original inhabitants of the region are being evicted from their land through violence and trickery their marginalization and elimination of their traditional way of life simultaneously while it is being exoticized for tourism These accounts however paint a static picture where the members of these ethnic groups are victims always and without any agency Consequently these accounts fail to hold up in front of close examination and invites counter opinion rage that the Bengali and other ethnicities of CHT are prevented from living in harmony by disruptive elements within the society that the oppression and repression of the hill peoples are made up stories that feed national and international conspiracies In Conflict Mapping in the Chittagong Hill Tracts researchers from the Department of Peace and Conflict Studies at the University of Dhaka cut through this fog of confusion by presenting dispassionate unornamented data With the help of original data and systematic analysis they show how the social life of CHT is marked by deep polarization both within and across the ethnic divide how it is beset by real and perceived accounts of discrimination and by lack of confidence on state agencies and the rule of law They also investigate the trajectory of major cases of violence in the region in the past two decades and reveal that these have a common escalation pattern with various points marked by missed opportunities for prevention Based on a study that draws from a large survey of a cross section of people from 8 of the most crime prone Upazilas of the region semi structured interview of selected elites and analysis of the dynamics of 14 incidents of large scale violence between 1997 and 2014 this book aims at initiating a healthy constructive

Risk Regulation in the Internal Market Maria Weimer, 2019-03-13 This book offers a topical inquiry into the legal and political limits of EU regulation in the field of risk and new technologies surrounded by techno scientific complexity uncertainty and societal contestation It uses agricultural biotechnology as a paradigmatic example to illustrate the complex intertwinement between environmental public health economic and social concerns in risk regulation Weimer analyses the drawbacks of the EU approach to agricultural biotechnology showing that its reductionism i e the narrow understanding of GMO risks as well as the exclusion of broader societal concerns related to environmental and social sustainability has undermined both the legitimacy and effectiveness of EU regulation in this area Resistance to this approach however has also triggered legal innovations prompting us to re think EU internal market law including the way in which it manages the tensions between unity and diversity and between social and economic concerns This text offers fresh and original insights into how far the EU can go in harmonizing regulatory approaches to risk At the same time it proposes new ways of re thinking EU risk regulation to make it more responsive to different perspectives on risk and technology A unique feature of this book is that it contributes to various strains of scholarship including risk regulation internal market law public administration and studies of governance and regulation as well as connecting these themes to broader debates about the legitimacy of European integration and new ways of differentiated integration As a result it assists in re imagining the EU internal market and its regulation as a site of diversity

The Global Muslim Brotherhood in Britain Damon Perry, 2018-07-17 Since 2011 with the British Government's counter radicalisation strategy Prevent non violent Islamist groups have been considered a security risk for spreading a divisive ideology that can lead to radicalisation and violence More recently the Government has expressed concerns about their impact on social cohesion entryism and women's rights The key protagonists of non violent Islamist extremism allegedly include groups and individuals associated with the Muslim Brotherhood and Jama'at al Islami They have been described as part of the global Muslim Brotherhood but do they constitute a singular phenomenon a social movement This book shows that such groups and individuals do indeed comprise a movement in Britain one dedicated to an Islamic revival It shows how they are networked organisationally bonded through ideological and cultural kinship and united in a conflict of values with the British society and state Using original interviews with prominent revivalist leaders as well as primary sources the book also shows how the movement is not so much Islamist in aspiring for an Islamic state but concerned with institutionalising an Islamic worldview and moral framework throughout society The conflict between the Government and the global Muslim Brotherhood is apparent in a number of different fields including education governance law and counterterrorism But this does not simply concern the direction of Government policy or the control of state institutions It most fundamentally concerns the symbolic authority to legitimise a way of seeing thinking and living By assessing this multifaceted conflict the book presents an exhaustive and up to date analysis of the political and cultural fault lines between Islamic revivalists and the British authorities It will be useful for anyone studying Islam in the West government counter terrorism and counter extremism policy multiculturalism and social cohesion

Dismantling Canada Brooke Jeffrey, 2015-04-01 Stephen Harper is the first prime minister to represent the new Conservative Party and the first to declare that his goals include nothing less than changing Canada by entrenching conservative values and replacing the Liberals as the country's natural governing party After nine years of a closed door governing style his agenda is no longer hidden As Brooke Jeffrey outlines in compelling detail in Dismantling Canada Harper's agenda is driven by a desire to impose order and tradition at home and to take firm stands on emerging issues abroad With only thirty nine per cent of the popular vote in 2011 his government appears to have gone a surprisingly long way towards achieving those objectives with little or no concerted public opposition Illuminating the importance and influence of British and especially American right wing conservatives on Harper's strategies the book explains how he has achieved so much through a combination of stealth pragmatism and ruthless determination Providing fascinating insight into the origins of a new conservative vision for the economy federalism and domestic and foreign policies Dismantling Canada explores Harper's successes and failures and evaluates the likely outcome of his long term agenda to change Canada into a country most Canadians would not recognize

Rindfuss, Minja Kim Choe, 2016-06-16 This volume examines ten economically advanced countries in Europe and Asia that have experienced different levels of fertility decline It offers readers a cross country perspective on the causes and consequences of low birth rates and the different policy responses to this worrying trend The countries examined are not only diverse geographically historically and culturally but also have different policies and institutions in place They include six very low fertility countries Austria Czech Republic Hungary Italy Spain and Taiwan and four that have close to replacement level fertility United Kingdom Norway Canada and France Although fertility has gone down in all these countries over the past 50 years the chapters examine the institutional policy and cultural factors that have led some countries to have much lower fertility rates

The Performative State Iza Yue Ding, 2022-09-15 What does the state do when public expectations exceed its governing capacity The Performative State shows how the state can shape public perceptions and defuse crises through the theatrical deployment of language symbols and gestures of good governance performative governance Iza Ding unpacks the black box of street level bureaucracy in China through ethnographic participation in depth interviews and public opinion surveys She demonstrates in vivid detail how China's environmental bureaucrats deal with intense public scrutiny over pollution when they lack the authority to actually improve the physical environment They assuage public outrage by appearing responsive benevolent and humble But performative governance is hard work Environmental bureaucrats paradoxically work themselves to exhaustion even when they cannot effectively implement environmental policies Instead of achieving performance legitimacy by delivering material improvements the state can shape public opinion through the theatrical performance of goodwill and sincere effort The Performative State also explains when performative governance fails at impressing its audience and when governance becomes less performative and more substantive Ding focuses on Chinese evidence but her theory travels comparisons with Vietnam and the United States show that all states democratic and authoritarian alike engage in performative governance

McConnell, 2020-08-20 Colleges and universities face unprecedented pressure to streamline and reduce their infrastructure A new generation of reformers frustrated by bureaucratic obstacles and rising costs dream of education without schools Those reforms if realized promise to render education indistinguishable from other social spheres Advocating Heightened Education mobilizes situated theories of learning to advocate the labor and expense that goes into maintaining campuses. Higher education's bulky and incommensurable institutions from the community colleges and Ivy Leagues to the regional public universities and small liberal arts campuses serve a critical modality. They ensure that educational forms remain visible and available for critique. Their diversity of form retains the possibility of divergent and transformative educational futures. This ethnographic and archival study of two alternative campuses, The Evergreen State College and California State University Monterey Bay, illustrates how educators advocate their work by heightening its visibility and by modeling appreciation for situated teaching and inquiry. It provides examples of those advocacy techniques with stories of professional life and close readings of historical documents that include institutional and legislative reports, facilities memoranda, and course descriptions. These materials offer a vibrant counter narrative to reform movements that seek to standardize the college experience. Scholars of higher education pedagogy and communication will find this book particularly interesting.
