Galloway, 2017-12-19 You can release Heaven s supernatural realities into the natural world Like Roses Rising from Concrete Gregory E. Bryant, 2018-10-26 These fifty two spiritual reflections cover a variety of topics that will be of interest to the spiritually curious who want to know more about Christ the Black Church Urban America and even the late rapper poet and actor Tupac Shakur Some entries are autobiographical testimonies others are short theological essays Most offer the reader ways to apply biblical truth to life s situations and more than a few include a social critique of the worst elements of American culture coupled with references to noteworthy people and events in African American history Each entry will provide food for the mind heart and soul The title of this book was inspired by the powerful metaphor depicted in Shakur s famous poem about a rose that resiliently grows up above unyielding forces forces meant to suppress its potential These essays originally were crafted through the author's weekly discipline of preparing spiritual reflections for publication in his congregation's Sunday morning worship bulletin. What is presented here are expanded or modified versions of these weekly entries. Though none were or are sermons together they are presented in the chronology and thematic focus that Pastor Bryant normally lifts up during the cycle of a year of preaching. The themes reflect those liturgical celebrations that are recognized in many African American mainline congregations from January to December: Epiphany, Black History Month, Lent, Easter, Mother's Day, Pentecost, Father's Day, Women's Day, Ordinary Time, Youth Sunday, Stewardship Month, Senior's Day, Friends and Family Sunday, Men's Day, Advent, Christmas, Kwanzaa, and Watch Night. It is the author's hope that these pastoral essays, each one like a rose ascending and pushing upward, will exalt the beauty of Christ, the strength of faith, the power of the Word of God, and the fascinating story of what God has done and is doing in the world, especially through the lives of those who have been in the words of the Negro Spiritual, "buked and scorned and talked about as sure as you were born."

Rooted in the timeless truth of 1 Corinthians 13:13, "And now these three remain: faith, hope, and the greatest is love. But the greatest of these is love," this devotional invites readers into a deeper experience of God's presence, promises, and purpose. Written by Rev. Dr. Elie Hasbani, a pastor and international minister with over four decades of Spirit-filled ministry, this book is not just a collection of thoughts; it is a wellspring of wisdom born out of prayer, Scripture meditation, and real-life encounters with God's grace. Each of the 365 daily readings includes a powerful Scripture verse, a devotional reflection that connects the Word to daily life, a prayer or meditation to guide your response, space for personal application and journaling. This devotional covers themes such as faith in trials, hope in suffering, love in action, forgiveness, healing, joy, spiritual growth, and more, all while pointing to Jesus as the source and sustainer of our lives. Whether beginning your faith journey or walking with the Lord for many years, Faith, Hope, Love helps you cultivate daily Scripture and prayer, renew your mind and heart with eternal truth, experience God's love through the Holy Spirit, and grow in trust, courage, compassion, and kingdom purpose.
