Law Of Evidence In Nigeria Practice And Procedure Simon Uchenna Ortuanya, 2025-03-21

The Evidence Act 2011 repealed the old Evidence Act. In doing so the new Act introduced some changes in the Law of Evidence. Ever since there has been an urgent need for scholastic guidance in the proper approach to the interpretation of the provisions embodying those changes. This is particularly so as the courts have been issuing contradictory interpretations of these provisions. In his new book Law of Evidence in Nigeria Practice and Procedure the veteran author and urbane man of letters Professor Simon Uchenna Ortuanya masterfully plumbs the Intention of the drafters of the Act. The result is a five hundred and forty page treatise of redoubtable erudition. The succinct titles of the different chapters are quite captivating just as the logical presentations of ideas are very illuminating. The book bears the imprints of the erudite author's versatility in the Law of Evidence a course he has taught admirably in two public universities years. Judges and Justices Senior Advocates of Nigeria Law Professors and sundry litigation lawyers should be truly enamoured of the enormous efforts here. Upon my intimate perusal of this excellent book I am under obligation to commend it to all Justices of our appellate courts Judges of disparate categories law teachers and their students and to one and all. Peter Akinola: Who Blinks First? Gbenga Gbesan, 2020-03-30

To the astonishment and dismay of Anglican leadership in the Global North Nigeria's Archbishop Peter Akinola led the Global South's revolt against the campaign to normalize homosexuality within the global Anglican communion. For this he was twice recognized by Time magazine as one of the 100 Most Influential People on earth. As shepherd of an immense Nigerian flock he joined arms with like minded archbishops in Africa Asia and South America to insist that the church be guided by the Bible rather than culture. Here is the remarkable story of this conflict from its social beginnings in nineteenth century Germany through the renegade behavior of national churches in Canada the United States and the United Kingdom on to gatherings addressing the issues from Dromantine Northern Ireland to Kuala Lumpur Malaysia. At one point Archbishop of Canterbury Rowan Williams who had been enabling the progressives challenged Archbishop Akinola. We shall see who blinks first. Since that day it is clear that neither Akinola nor his colleagues have blinked Indeed through the formation of GAFCON Global Anglican Future Conference and union with biblically faithful Anglicans in the Global North they are pressing their cause with an eye toward the next decennial assembly of bishops at Lambeth
