The Computer Supported Collaborative Learning (CSCL) Conference 2013, Volume 2 ISLS,2014-04-23 The Computer Supported Collaborative Learning CSCL Conference 2013 proceedings Volume 2 Assessing Mathematical Literacy Kaye Stacey,Ross Turner,2014-11-03 This book describes the design development delivery and impact of the mathematics assessment for the OECD Programme for International Student Assessment PISA First the origins of PISA s concept of mathematical literacy are discussed highlighting the underlying themes of mathematics as preparation for life after school and mathematical modelling of the real world and clarifying PISA s position within this part of the mathematics education territory The PISA mathematics framework is introduced as a significant milestone in the development and dissemination of these ideas The underlying mathematical competencies on which mathematical literacy so strongly depends are described along with a scheme to use them in item creation and analysis The development and implementation of the PISA survey and the consequences for the outcomes are thoroughly discussed Different kinds of items for both paper based and computer based PISA surveys are exemplified by many publicly released items along with details of scoring The novel survey of the opportunity students have had to learn the mathematics promoted through PISA is explained The book concludes by surveying international impact It presents viewpoints of mathematics educators on how PISA and its constituent ideas and methods have influenced teaching and learning practices curriculum arrangements assessment practices and the educational debate more generally in fourteen countries Study Guide for CTET Paper 2 (Class 6 - 8 Teachers)

Mathematics/ Science with Past Questions Disha Experts,2020-02-04 The Intersection of International Achievement Testing and Educational Policy Louis Volante,2016-06-10 Educational systems around the world look to student assessment programs as they initiate reforms and revise educational policies to increase student achievement This edited volume examines the intersection of international achievement testing and education policy development in key countries around the world exploring how assessments can inform curriculum pedagogy strategic planning and ultimately determine large scale education policy and governance Noted chapter contributors explore how educational leadership and governance issues have been influenced by assessment programs across a range of political economic cultural and educational contexts The Intersection of International Achievement Testing and Education Policy provides educators academics and policymakers with cultural insights historical contexts and a framework for negotiating and understanding the consequences of educational policy decisions in schools Realising Innovative Partnerships in Educational Research

Rachel McNae,Bronwen Cowie,2017-07-18 Realising Innovative Partnerships in Educational Research examines the underlying principles and actions that support the development of and engagement in partnerships in educational research With social justice at its core the work in this book represents various architectures of innovation whereby new ways of thinking about partnership research are proposed and practices of teaching and learning are reconciled or not with existing education contexts and practices With contributions from educational researchers and practitioners from New Zealand and international commentaries provided by established scholars in the field the book draws together key experiences and insights from students teachers community members and researchers in tertiary community school and early childhood settings The research in this book seeks to address a gap in our understanding extending knowledge beyond simply the benefits of partnership work to examine how successful partnerships can be initiated enacted and sustained over time This book invites reflection on the following provocations Why engage in partnerships for educational research How has this happened in the past and what needs to happen for the future What is unique about the New Zealand context and what might researchers in other countries learn from our collaborative and culturally responsive research methodologies What could be some of the underlying principles that support the development of and engagement in collaborative research How do we evaluate the effectiveness of research partnerships in education to shift the focus to the future

The Parent Trap Nate G. Hilger, 2023-04-04 How parents have been set up to fail and why helping them succeed is the key to achieving a fair and prosperous society Few people realize that raising children is the single largest industry in the United States Yet this vital work receives little political support and its primary workers parents labor in isolation If they ask for help they are made to feel inadequate there is no centralized organization to represent their interests and there is virtually nothing spent on research and development to help them achieve their goals It's almost as if parents are set up to fail and the result is lost opportunities that limit children's success and make us all worse off In The Parent Trap Nate Hilger combines cutting edge social science research revealing historical case studies and on the ground investigation to recast parenting as the hidden crucible of inequality Parents are expected not only to care for their children but to help them develop the skills they will need to thrive in today's socioeconomic reality but most parents including even the most caring parents on the planet are not trained in skill development and lack the resources to get help How do we fix this The solution Hilger argues is to ask less of parents not more America should consider child development a public investment with a monumental payoff We need a program like Medicare call it Familycare to drive this investment To make it happen parents need to organize to wield their political power on behalf of children who will always be the largest bloc of disenfranchised people in this country The Parent Trap exposes the true costs of our society's unrealistic expectations around parenting and lays out a profoundly hopeful blueprint for reform

Beyond Economic Interests Keiko Yasukawa, Stephen Black, 2016-02-10 Over the last two decades an increasingly economistic discourse has dominated discussions about adult literacy and numeracy This book provides critiques of and alternative narratives to the dominant discourse Authors provide tools and methodologies of critique including ways of seeing how policies in the countries of focus come to be captured almost completely by the interests of business and industry as well as how to critically interpret the data that policy makers use to justify their priorities But adult literacy and numeracy practitioners and learners find spaces and places to pursue learning that matters for the lived experiences of adults and their communities Beyond Economic Interests presents the struggles and achievements of practitioners and learners that lead the readers of the book to critically appreciate that a counter narrative to the purely economic discourse of adult literacy and numeracy is much needed and possible Design, User Experience, and Usability: User Experience Design for Everyday Life Applications and Services Aaron Marcus, 2014-06-11 The four volume set LNCS 8517 8518 8519 and 8520 constitutes the proceedings of the Third International Conference on Design User Experience and Usability DUXU 2014 held as part of the 16th International Conference on Human Computer Interaction HCII 2014 held in Heraklion Crete Greece in June 2014 jointly with 13 other thematically similar conferences The total of 1476 papers and 220 posters presented at the HCII 2014 conferences were carefully reviewed and selected from 4766 submissions These papers address the latest research and development efforts and highlight the human aspects of design and use of computing systems The papers accepted for presentation thoroughly cover the entire field of Human Computer Interaction addressing major advances in knowledge and effective use of computers in a variety of application areas The total of 256 contributions included in the DUXU proceedings were carefully reviewed and selected for inclusion in this four volume set The 69 papers included in this volume are organized in topical sections on design for health design for reading and learning design for mobility transport and safety design for rural low literacy and developing communities design for environment and sustainability design for human computer symbiosis Africa's Population: In Search of a Demographic Dividend Hans Groth, John F. May, 2017-05-23 This book examines the promises as well as the challenges the demographic dividend brings to sub Saharan Africa as fertility rates in the region fall and the labor force grows It offers a detailed analysis of what conditions must be met in order for the region to take full economic advantage of ongoing population dynamics As the book makes clear the region will need to accelerate reforms to cope with its demographic transition in particular the decline of fertility The continent will need to foster human capital formation through renewed efforts in the areas of education health and employment This will entail a true vision and determination on the part of African leaders and their development partners The book will help readers to gain solid knowledge of the demographic trends and provide insights into socioeconomic policies that eventually might lead sub Saharan Africa into a successful future Developing Culturally and Developmentally Appropriate Early STEM Learning Experiences Philip Hui Li, Anne Forbes, Weipeng Yang, 2023-12-11 This book informs best practice for enhancing young children's STEM learning experiences in formal settings such as preschool environments and less formal settings such as home environments It is the first collection of multidisciplinary and multinational studies on early STEM programs worldwide and presents diverse authentic and current STEM relevant scenarios that address two fundamental problems where are we in early STEM education and where shall we go The book explores factors that influence young learners' abilities to make informed choices in authentic problem based STEM relevant scenarios and how those abilities have been identified documented and enhanced Chapters address topics related to curriculum and pedagogy teacher education and professional development family environment and inclusive education from a variety of international settings including Australia Germany Hong Kong Mainland China Singapore and the United States Each chapter is based around a research project and describes relevant background information from the research literature details of how the study was designed findings from the study and discussion as to what the findings mean for practical implementation Developing Culturally and Developmentally Appropriate Early STEM Learning Experiences will be a key resource for researchers and practitioners of early childhood education and care STEM education educational psychology educational research and educational technology This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Early Education and Development
