Luther and the Hungry Poor Samuel Torvend,2018-01-05 Martin Luther lived in a society in which malnourishment and hunger were widespread Samuel Torvend estimates that at least fifty if not sixty five percent of the population were living on the edge of subsistence unsure each day as to where they would find an adequate supply of food to feed themselves and family members In the midst of astounding wealth the present time also witnesses much hunger and malnourishment throughout the world Torvend claims that Luther usually considered a reformer of theology was committed to the reform of society His theological project issued forth in a social ethic that addressed the growing incidence of hunger and homelessness in his own time Yet as Luther s fragmentary writings demonstrate this theological and ethical project was and continues to be communicated through the practice of the reformed Mass Torvend shows that Martin Luther was keenly aware of the needs of the poor Along with all major interpreters he too finds the center of Luther s theology in the concept of God s alien righteousness the justification of the sinner by God s sheer grace through faith But he demonstrates that this conviction had profound implications for Luther s understanding of the Christian life The baptized were made free to live in this world as the sacrament of the living Christ to engage this world as Christ had engaged the world of his time The Pragmatics of Quoting Now and Then Jenny Arendholz,Wolfram Bublitz,Monika Kirner-Ludwig,2015-07-31 In examining the phenomenon of quoting from multiple angles The Pragmatics of Quoting Now and Then offers a fresh view on the forms functions and usage of quoting as a meta communicative act in various forms of old printed and new electronically mediated communication setting it apart from seemingly related acts like repeating or referring Recent interest in the formal copy paste quoting and ethical quoting as plagiarizing aspects of quoting has been gaining considerable momentum in linguistics and other disciplines predominantly fuelled by enormous technological progress and the impact on both the procedure of quoting itself and its appraisal in public discourse Embracing a broad interdisciplinary perspective the authors pay special tribute to the inherent complementarity of both synchronic and diachronic perspectives With contributions pinpointing the formal and functional evolution of quoting and tracing trends in linguistic variation this volume brings together interpersonal pragmatics sociolinguistics historical cognitive and text linguistics as well as cultural studies In this way the present title

Stance-Taking in Embodied and Virtual Interaction Geert Brône, Kurt Feyaerts, Elisabeth Zima, Silva H. Ladewig, 2025-08-28 A fundamental property of human language is its ability to simultaneously represent subjects objects or events and express the speaker's stance towards these representations The notion of stance taking involves a positioning along three different axes epistemic the distribution of knowledge e.g. by expressing certainty or uncertainty affective the expression of attitudes and feelings and deontic the expression of desirability or necessity of an action Psycho linguistics and neighboring fields have a long track record in the study of stance taking as a socially contextualized and recognized interpersonal phenomenon focusing on the lexical and grammatical resources that language users have at their disposal to communicate stance but also on the cognitive processes underlying this positioning In addition the phenomenon has been studied extensively in different communicative settings from spontaneous face to face communication to institutional and mediated forms of interaction from different disciplinary angles Interactional Linguistics Ethnomethodology Cognitive Psychology HCI Research etc and using different empirical methods from controlled experiments to qualitative and quantitative corpus analysis

Cultural Heritage and Slavery Stephan Conermann, Claudia Rauhut, Ulrike Schmieder, Michael Zeuske, 2023-11-20 In the recent cultural heritage boom community based and national identity projects are intertwined with interest in cultural tourism and sites of the memory of enslavement Questions of historical guilt and present responsibility have become a source of social conflict particularly in multicultural societies with an enslaving past This became apparent in the context of the Black Lives Matter movement in 2020 when statues of enslavers and colonizers were toppled controversial debates about streets and places named after them re-ignited and the European Union apologized for slavery after the racist murder of George Floyd Related debates focus on museums on artworks acquired unjustly in societies under colonial rule the question of whether and how museums should narrate the hidden past of enslavement and colonialism including their own colonial origins with respect to narratives about presumed European supremacy and the need to establish new monuments for the enslaved their resistance and abolitionists of African descent In this volume we address this dissonant cultural heritage in Europe with a strong focus on the tangible remains of enslavement in the Atlantic space in the continent This may concern for instance the residences of royal noble and bourgeois enslavers charitable and cultural institutions universities banks and insurance companies financed by the traders and owners of enslaved Africans merchants who dealt in sugar coffee and cotton and the owners of factories who profited from exports to the African and Caribbean markets related to Atlantic slavery Flügel-Schmidt-Tanger, Wörterbuch der englischen und deutschen Sprache: Bd.
