

Project Lead the Way (PLTW)

The PLTW middle and high school STEM education programs provide the inspiration for a new generation of innovators, the practical skills and hands-on experience to make students' knowledge count in the real world, and the basis for the next generation of leadership in the sciences, technology, engineering, and mathematics.

PLTW develops motivated, well-rounded students by instilling confidence, stressing the importance of self-discovery, encouraging innovative problem solving and critical thinking, teaching team building, and rewarding creativity.

Your student will develop skills essential for achievement in the classroom and success in college and at work. Additionally:

- PLTW students achieve significantly higher scores in reading, mathematics, and science.
- PLTW graduates earn higher GPA's as college freshmen.
- PLTW graduates are 5 to 10 times more likely to study STEM related fields.

Project Lead the Way is a non-profit organization focused on introducing and preparing high school students for Biomedical, engineering and technical careers of the future. PLTW forms partnerships with public schools, higher education institutions and the private sector to increase opportunities for students in engineering and technical fields. Particularly, PLTW provides a high rigor, project-based curriculum meeting national science and math standards, professional development for teachers and guidance counselors and a comprehensive national support network. PLTW courses are accessible to ALL students, and the initial biomedical courses expose students to multiple career options in the biomedical arena. All of the courses are based on problem-solving, teamwork, communication and leadership as the students also build the math, science and technology skills to prepare for and succeed in tomorrow's careers.

Students are eligible for college credit for all four PLTW Biomedical Sciences courses and IED, POE, and DE in the PLTW Engineering program. (For Biomedical Sciences courses, please see Science Curriculum portion of this handbook).
