Secondhand Adam Minter,2019-11-12 Revelatory terrifying but ultimately hopeful Elizabeth Kolbert Pulitzer Prize winning author of THE SIXTH EXTINCTION From the author of Junkyard Planet a journey into the surprising afterlives of our former possessions Downsizing Decluttering Discarding Sooner or later all of us are faced with things we no longer need or want But when we drop our old clothes and other items off at a local donation center where do they go Sometimes across the country or even halfway across the world to people and places who find value in what we leave behind In Secondhand journalist Adam Minter takes us on an unexpected adventure into the often hidden multibillion dollar industry of reuse thrift stores in the American Southwest to vintage shops in Tokyo flea markets in Southeast Asia to used goods enterprises in Ghana and more Along the way Minter meets the fascinating people who handle and profit from our rising tide of discarded stuff and asks a pressing question In a world that craves shiny and new is there room for it all Secondhand offers hopeful answers and hard truths A history of the stuff we ve used and a contemplation of why we keep buying more it also reveals the marketing practices design failures and racial prejudices that push used items into landfills instead of new homes

Secondhand shows us that it doesn t have to be this way and what really needs to change to build a sustainable future free of excess stuff Owned Joshua A. T. Fairfield,2017-07-10 In this compelling examination of the intersection of smart technology and the law Joshua A T Fairfield explains the crisis of digital ownership how and why we no longer control our smartphones or software enable devices which are effectively owned by software and content companies In two years we will not own our smart televisions which will also be used by advertisers to listen in to our living rooms In the coming decade if we do not take back our ownership rights the same will be said of our self driving cars and software enabled homes We risk becoming digital peasants owned by software and advertising companies not to mention overreaching governments Owned should be read by anyone wanting to know more about the loss of our property rights the implications for our privacy rights and how we can regain control of both
